Photograph And The American Dream 1840-1940 The:

The Photograph and the American Dream, 1840-1940 Stephen White, Andreas Blühm, 2001 Perhaps no nation has been so thoroughly shaped by its dreams as has America and perhaps no other dreams have been captured on camera as often and as diversely as America's The mythic American Dream has been the subject of photographic documentation since the 1840s when photographers first began traveling to the New World in search of subjects From an unknown photographer's picture of newborn George B Billings Rego scion of an immigrant Portuguese family and the first child ever born at Boston Long Wharf to Lewis Hine's wrenching image of a young cotton mill worker in Georgia to Alfred Stieglitz's awesome New York cityscapes the photographs collected here reveal the multiple facets of 100 of the most decisive years of American development Between 1840 and 1940 immigrants became homeowners untouched lands exploded in superhuman industrial growth tourists replaced pioneers and the American metropolis grew taller and shinier and the camera caught it all

Photography and the USA Mick Gidley, 2010-11-15 From Ansel Adams to Carleton Watkins Diane Arbus to Weegee Richard Avedon to James VanDerZee American photographers have recorded their vast multicultural nation in images that for more than a hundred years have come to define the USA In Photography and the USA Mick Gidley explores not only the medium of photography and the efforts to capture key events and moments through photographs but also the many ways in which the medium has played a formative role in American culture Photography and the USA encompasses the major movements figures and works that are crucial to understanding American photography but also pays attention to more obscure aspects of photography's history Focusing on works that reveal many different facets of America its landscapes and its people Gidley explores the ambiguities of American history and culture We encounter images that range from an anti lynching demo in 1934 to Dorothea Lange's poster All races serve the crops in California an early photographic view of Niagara Falls against the painstaking detail of Edward Weston's Pepper No 30 a fireman's fight in the San Francisco earthquake of 1906 to the Ground Zero images of 2001 by Joel Meyerowitz an 1890s Wanted image to Elliot Erwitt's shot of the Nixon Kruschchev Kitchen Debate Organizing his narrative around the themes of history technology the document and the emblem Mick Gidley not only presents a history of photography but also reveals the complexities inherent in reading photographs themselves A concise yet comprehensive overview of photography in the United States this book is an excellent introduction to the subject for American Studies or visual arts students or for anyone interested in US history or culture
