Photography A Middle Brow Art:

Photography Pierre Bourdieu, Shaun Whiteside, 1990 The everyday practice of photography by millions of amateur photographers may seem to be a spontaneous and highly personal activity But France's leading sociologist and cultural theorist shows that few cultural activities are more structured and systematic than photography Photography Pierre Bourdieu, 1990 The everyday practice of photography by millions of amateur photographers the family snapshots the holiday prints the wedding portraits may seem to be a spontaneous and highly personal activity But Bourdieu and his associates aim to show that few cultural activities are more structured and systematic than the social uses of this ordinary art

Middlebrow Literary Cultures E. Brown, M. Grover, 2011-11-30 The literary middle ground once dismissed by academia as insignificant is the site of powerful anxieties about cultural authority that continue to this day In short the middlebrow matters These essays examine the prejudices and aspirations at work in the battle of the brows and show that cultural value is always relative and situational The New Literary Middlebrow B. Driscoll, 2014-09-15 The middlebrow is a dominant cultural force in the twenty first century This book defines the new literary middlebrow through eight key features middle class feminized reverential commercial emotional recreational earnest and mediated Case studies include Oprah's Book Club the Man Booker Prize and the Harry Potter phenomenon Middlebrow Cinema Sally Faulkner, 2016-03-31 Middlebrow Cinema challenges an often uninterrogated hostility to middlebrow culture that frequently dismisses it as conservative which it often is not and feminized or middle class which it often is The volume defines the term relationally against shifting concepts of high and low and considers its deployment in connection with text audience and institution In exploring the concept of the middlebrow this book recovers films that were widely meaningful to contemporary audiences yet sometimes overlooked by critics interested in popular and arthouse extremes It also addresses the question of socially mobile audiences who might express their aspirations through film watching and traces the cultural consequences of the movement of films across borders and between institutions The first study of its kind the volume comprises 11 original essays that test the purchase of the term middlebrow across cultures including those of Europe Asia and the Americas from the 1930s to the present day Middlebrow Cinema brings into view a popular and aspirational and thus especially relevant and dynamic area of film and film culture Ideal for students and researchers in this area this book Remaps Popular and arthouse approaches Explores British Chinese French Indian Mexican Spanish national cinemas alongside Continental Hollywood Queer Transnational cinemas Analyses Biopic Heritage Historical Film Melodrama Musical Sex Comedy genres Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden, 2013-02-15 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag

Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith,2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography s development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown Art

History and Its Institutions Elizabeth Mansfield,2005-08-18 Art History and Its Institutions focuses on the institutional discourses that shaped and continue to shape the field from its foundations in the nineteenth century From museums and universities to law courts labour organizations and photography studios contributors examine a range of institutions considering their impact on movements such as modernism their role in conveying or denying legitimacy and their impact on defining the parameters of the discipline Creole in the Archive Roshini Kempadoo,2016-10-24 The image of the Caribbean figure has been reconfigured by photography from the mid 19th century onwards Initial images associated with the slave and indentured worker from the locations and legacies associated with plantation economies have been usurped by visual representations emerging from struggles for social political and cultural autonomy Contemporary visual artists engaging with the Caribbean as a 21st century globalised space have focused on visually re imagining historical material and events as memories histories and dreamscapes Creole in the Archive uses photographic analysis to explore portraits postcards and social documentation of the colonial worker between 1850 and 1960 and contemporary often digital visual art by post independent postcolonial Caribbean artists Drawing on Derridean ideas of the archive the book reconceptualises the Caribbean visual archive as contiguous and relational It argues that using a creolising archive practice the conjuncture of contemporary artworks historical imagery and associated locations can develop insightful new multimodal representations of Caribbean subjectivities Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Pierre Bourdieu Jeremy F. Lane, 2000-07-20 This study of the work of the influential French sociologist and anthropologist Pierre Bourdieu places his work firmly in the context of developments both in the French post war intellectual field and in post war French society as a whole Set against the background of rapid change and upheaval that has characterised post war French society culture and politics Bourdieu's work can be seen as offering a peculiarly perceptive analysis of France's problematic transition to an era of late capitalism Proceeding thematically this study traces the development of Bourdieu's thought elucidating the relationship between the anthropological and sociological aspects of his work examining his debt to Marx Weber Durkheim Husserl Merleau Ponty and Bachelard and highlighting his antagonistic relationship with a series of contemporary intellectual figures and movements Barthes Lefebvre Touraine Sartre Fanon Foucault Derrida structuralism and post structuralism Beyond Dogmatism, 2023-08-07 In Beyond Dogmatism Studies in Historical Sociology Andrea Borghini offers a general overview of the perspective of Historical Sociology through distinguished authors working in this field Each of the contributing chapters traverses the history of sociological thought in a rich and innovative way Through the analysis of authors such as Bourdieu Lukacs Chase Dunn Gramsci Polanyi Sombart Mann and topics such as the Critique of Capitalism the Fetishism of Commodities the Sociology of Concepts and various comparisons between Sociology and Political Science an enlightening panorama is composed The end result is to restore the extreme topicality and richness of an approach that is particularly valuable for describing and interpreting the dynamics of our age Contributors are Ricardo A Dello Buono Gerardo Pastore

Domenico Maddaloni Cory Blad Enrico Campo Alfonso Maurizio Iacono Roberta Iannone Andrea Borghini Elena Gremigni Eleonora Piromalli Lorenzo Sabetta Carmelo Lombardo and Alfredo Ferrara      Snapshot Photography Catherine Zuromskis, 2021-08-24 An examination of the contradictions within a form of expression that is both public and private specific and abstract conventional and countercultural Snapshots capture everyday occasions Taken by amateur photographers with simple point and shoot cameras snapshots often commemorate something that is private and personal yet they also reflect widely held cultural conventions The poses may be formulaic but a photograph of loved ones can evoke a deep affective response In Snapshot Photography Catherine Zuromskis examines the development of a form of visual expression that is both public and private Scholars of art and culture tend to discount snapshot photography it is too ubiquitous too unremarkable too personal Zuromskis argues for its significance Snapshot photographers she contends are not so much creating spontaneous records of their lives as they are participating in a prescriptive cultural ritual A snapshot is not only a record of interpersonal intimacy but also a means of linking private symbols of domestic harmony to public ideas of social conformity Through a series of case studies Zuromskis explores the social life of snapshot photography in the United States in the latter half of the twentieth century She examines the treatment of snapshot photography in the 2002 film One Hour Photo and in the television crime drama Law and Order Special Victims Unit the growing interest of collectors and museum curators in vintage snapshots and the snapshot aesthetic of Andy Warhol and Nan Goldin She finds that Warhol's photographs of the Factory community and Goldin's intense and intimate photographs of friends and family use the conventions of the snapshot to celebrate an alternate version of family values In today's digital age snapshot photography has become even more ubiquitous and ephemeral and significantly more public But buried within snapshot photography's mythic construction Zuromskis argues is a site of democratic possibility      The Routledge Companion to Photography and Visual Culture Moritz Neumüller, 2018-09-21 The Routledge Companion to Photography and Visual Culture is a seminal reference source for the ever changing field of photography Comprising an impressive range of essays and interviews by experts and scholars from across the globe this book examines the medium's history its central issues and emerging trends and its much discussed future The collected essays and interviews explore the current debates surrounding the photograph as object art document propaganda truth selling tool and universal language the perception of photography archives as burdens rather than treasures the continual technological development reshaping the field photography as a tool of representation and control and more One of the most comprehensive volumes of its kind this companion is essential reading for photographers and historians alike      The Five Senses in Nabokov's Works Marie Bouchet, Julie Loison-Charles, Isabelle Poulin, 2020-06-19 This collection of essays focuses on a subject largely neglected in Nabokovian criticism the importance and significance of the five senses in Vladimir Nabokov's work poetics politics and aesthetics This text analyzes the crucial role of the author's synesthesia and multilingualism in relation to the five senses as well as the

sensual and erotic dimensions of sensoriality in his works Each chapter provides a highly focused and sometimes provocative approach to the unique role that sensory perceptions play in the shaping and narrating of Nabokov's memories and in his creative process

The Photographic Object 1970 Mary Statzer, 2016-01-26 In 1970 photography curator Peter C Bunnell organized an exhibition called Photography into Sculpture for the Museum of Modern Art New York The project which brought together twenty three photographers and artists from the United States and Canada was among the first exhibitions to recognize work that blurred the boundaries between photography and other mediums At once an exhibition catalogue after the fact an oral history and a critical reading of exhibitions and experimental photography during the 1960s and 1970s The Photographic Object 1970 proposes precedents for contemporary artists who continue to challenge traditional practices and categories Mary Statzer has gathered a range of diverse materials including contributions from Bunnell Eva Respini and Drew Sawyer Erin O Toole Lucy Soutter and Rebecca Morse as well as interviews with Ellen Brooks Michael de Courcy Richard Jackson Jerry McMillan and other of the exhibition's surviving artists Featuring seventy nine illustrations most of them in color this volume is an essential resource on a groundbreaking exhibition

Visible Borders, Invisible Economies Kristy L. Ulibarri, 2022-11-22 2023 Outstanding Book Award National Association for Ethnic Studies A thorough examination of the political and economic exploitation of Latinx subjects migrants and workers through the lens of Latinx literature photography and film Globalization in the United States can seem paradoxical free trade coincides with fortification of the southern border while immigration is reimagined as a national security threat US politics turn aggressively against Latinx migrants and subjects even as post NAFTA markets become thoroughly reliant on migrant and racialized workers But in fact there is no incongruity here Rather anti immigrant politics reflect a strategy whereby capital uses specialized forms of violence to create a reserve army of the living laboring dead Visible Borders Invisible Economies turns to Latinx literature photography and films that render this unseen scheme shockingly vivid Works such as Valeria Luiselli's Tell Me How It Ends and Alex Rivera's Sleep Dealer crystallize the experience of Latinx subjects and migrants subjugated to social death their political existence erased by disenfranchisement and racist violence while their bodies still toil in behalf of corporate profits In Kristy L Ulibarri's telling art clarifies what power obscures the national security state performs anti immigrant and xenophobic politics that substitute cathartic nationalism for protections from the free market while ensuring maximal corporate profits through the manufacture of disposable migrant labor

Making Movies into Art Kaveh Askari, 2014-12-12 Focusing on early cinema's relationship with the pictorial arts this pioneering study explores how cinema's emergence was grounded in theories of picture composition craft and arts education from magic lantern experiments in 1890s New York through to early Hollywood feature films in the 1920s Challenging received notions that the advent of cinema was a celebration of mechanisation and a radical rejection of nineteenth century traditions of representation Kaveh Askari instead emphasises the overlap between craft traditions and modernity in early film Opening up valuable new perspectives on the history of film as art Askari links American silent cinema with the practice of teaching the public how to appreciate fine art charts its entrance into arts education via art schools and university film courses shows how concepts of artistic production entered films through a material interest in the studio and examines the way in which Maurice Tourneur and Rex Ingram made early art films by shaping an image of the film director around the idea of the fine artist

On The Margins Of Art Worlds Larry Gross, 2019-06-04 During the late 1980s the near worship of artistic genius produced auction sales of works by Vincent Van Gogh and Pablo Picasso for tens of millions of dollars over 15 million for a painting by Jasper Johns and record prices for works by many other deceased and even living masters At the same time it was no longer controversial in academic and intellectual circles to maintain that art works are the products of what Howard Becker has termed collective activity carried out within loosely defined art worlds Works of art from this point of view are not the products of individual makers artists who possess a rare and special gift They are rather joint products of all the people who cooperate via an art world's characteristic conventions to bring works like that into existence Artists are some sub group of the world's participants who by common agreement possess a special gift therefore make a unique and indispensable contribution to the work and thereby make it art 1982 35 The concept of the art world with its central focus on the collective social and conventional nature of artistic production distribution and appreciation confronts and potentially undermines the romantic ideology of art and artists still dominant in Western societies
