No More Letting Go Debra Jay, 2007-12-18 Detachment has been the standard message of most addiction literature for the last twenty years The conventional wisdom offered to an addict's loved ones has been to let the addict hit bottom before intervening Now intervention specialist Debra Jay challenges this belief and offers a bold new approach to treating addiction that provides a practical and spiritual lifeline to families struggling with alcohol or drug abuse In No More Letting Go Jay argues that the traditional advice of letting go too often destroys both the addict and the family physically emotionally and spiritually Jay contends that addiction is everybody's business not just the addict's and addiction doesn't have the right to trump the welfare of a family In short highly accessible chapters written with warmth understanding and compassion Jay weaves together philosophical and religious thought new science on the brain function of an addict the physical and psychological impact of addiction on family members and poignant real life family stories No More Letting Go is a powerful informative guide that provides comfort hope and practical advice to anyone affected by a family member's addiction
