Walters, 2012-02-28 America is in danger of losing the constitutional republic created by the Founding Fathers Since the beginning of the progressive era the federal government has steadily encroached on the rights of the states and the people Yet today we are inundated with politicians of both parties who seek new ideas and innovative ways to make government work rather than solutions for preserving our political heritage To restore our republic we need to look to the past to the political fathers of old who made the nation the best and brightest on earth Grover Cleveland was the last of those fathers As a mayor governor and president Cleveland dealt with many of the same troubles we face today the public character and behavior of our candidates the role of government in the everyday lives of the people the burden of taxation the distribution of wealth government involvement in an economic depression monetary policy and complex foreign affairs By studying Cleveland's policies and ideals we can relearn those forgotten lessons of ancient times and restore the American republic The Race for the Áras 2012 Tom Reddy, 2012-02-27 Political intrigue high drama and farce characterised Ireland's presidential campaign of 2011 Consistent opinion poll topper David Norris was the first to declare and the first to crash out after it was revealed he had appealed for clemency for his former lover who was convicted of statutory rape of a teenage boy A month later he was back in the race A media frenzy erupted again when it emerged that new party leader Micheál Martin had tried but failed to convince broadcasting legend Gay Byrne to run for Fianna Fáil Fine Gael's Enda Kenny favoured parachute candidate Pat Cox but Gay Mitchell bucked party HQ and won the nomination Weeks later both he and Special Olympics organiser Mary Davis laid claim to the exact same slogan as they unveiled their poster campaign Martin McGuinness was a surprise entry into the field and was dramatically confronted and challenged throughout the campaign about his past as an IRA commander Former presidential candidate Dana was the final entrant into the field When her campaign car skidded off the road it launched speculation about an assassination attempt But it was the revelations on the final TV debate on Frontline and a fake tweet that became a game changer for Dragons Den star Seán Gallagher and resulted in the election of poet and politician Michael D Higgins with over one million votes to secure the Áras The whole story is here recalling the highs and lows in the most gripping election ever Rhetorical Agendas Patricia
