Brown, Elizabeth Vibert, 1996 Indigenous Education and Empowerment Ismael Abu-Saad, Duane Champagne, 2006-03-15 Indigenous people have often been confronted with education systems that ignore their cultural and historical perspectives This insightful volume contributes to our understanding of indigenous empowerment through education and creates a new foundation for implementing special education programs

Reading Beyond Words Jennifer S. H. Brown, Elizabeth Vibert, 2003 An important collection of original articles so full of insight that summarizing them seems an impossible task The research is exciting and engaging American Historical Review

Reading Beyond Words Jennifer S. H. Brown, Elizabeth Vibert, 2003-09-01 It takes patience and dedication to recover and communicate the experiences and perspectives of those for whom the historical record is lacking or severely limited by the interpretation of others it takes reading beyond words The first edition of this highly praised collection presented some of the best new efforts to examine critically the possible interpretations of Native North American history and Native European encounters over 500 years In doing so it served as a model for revisiting Native history To this extensively revised new edition three new encounter studies have been added presenting original and thought provoking work not previously published the Frobisher expeditions and their relations with the Inuit in the 1570s Thanadelthur the remarkable Dene woman who brought her people to a peace with the Cree and to trade with the Hudson's Bay Company in the early 1700s and the previously unexamined dynamics of Cree Oblate missionary relations on Hudson Bay in the late 1800s to mid 1900s as seen from both sides Comments on the first edition An important collection of original articles so full of insight that summarizing them seems an impossible task The research is exciting and engaging American Historical Review An excellent collection of studies concerning the relationship between Native Americans Canadian First Nations and Europeans Valuable reading for anyone seeking to gain an appreciation of how best to approach a wide variety of issues from a literary anthropological or historical perspective Paul Bartrop University of South Australia Jennifer S H Brown is a Professor in the Department of History at the University of Winnipeg Canada Research Chair in Aboriginal Peoples in an Urban and Regional Context and Director of the Centre for Rupert's Land Studies at the University of Winnipeg She is the author of Strangers in Blood Fur Trade Company Families in Indian Country University of Oklahoma Press 1996 Elizabeth Vibert is an Associate Professor in the Department of History at the University of Victoria She is the author of Traders Tales Narratives of Cultural Encounters in the Columbia Plateau 1807-1846 University of Oklahoma Press 2000

The Broadview Book of Common Errors in English - Fifth Edition Don LePan, 2003-04-17 The Broadview Book of Common Errors in English offers full coverage of such common mistakes as commas splices sentence fragments words frequently confused words frequently misspelled mixed metaphors and subject verb agreement errors In each case the problem is clearly explained with examples illustrating both the nature of the trouble and how to put it right Unlike many guides to grammar and usage The Broadview Book refrains from dogmatism it treats correctness in English not as an unchanging objective standard laden with moral overtones but rather as a code of convenience that is extraordinarily useful in helping humans to communicate effectively and even elegantly. It thus retains an openness to the inevitable process of change in the English language and recognizes that change does not imply debasement. The fifth edition has been updated throughout and includes new material on capitalization on the connections between clear writing and clear arguments on academic citation systems on business writing and on particular difficulties experienced by those whose first language is not English. The Broadview Guide to Writing - Revised Canadian Sixth Edition Doug Babington, Don LePan, Maureen Okun, Nora Ruddock, 2016-12-28. Increasingly writing handbooks are seen as over produced and overpriced. One stands out. The Broadview Guide to Writing is published in an elegant but simple format and sells for roughly half the price of its fancier looking competitors. That does not change with the new edition. What does change and stay up to date is the book's contents. For the sixth edition the coverage of APA Chicago and CSE styles of documentation has been substantially expanded. The MLA section has now been fully revised to take into account all the 2016 changes. Also expanded is coverage of academic argument of writing and critical thinking of writing about literature of paragraphing of how to integrate quoted material into one's own work of balance and parallelism and of issues of gender race religion etc in writing. The chapter Seeing and Meaning Reading and Writing About Visual Images is entirely new to the sixth edition.

The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature James H. Cox, Daniel Heath Justice, 2014-07-31. Over the course of the last twenty years Native American and Indigenous American literary studies has experienced a dramatic shift from a critical focus on identity and authenticity to the intellectual cultural political historical and tribal nation contexts from which these Indigenous literatures emerge. The Oxford Handbook of Indigenous American Literature reflects on these changes and provides a complete overview of the current state of the field. The Handbook's forty three essays organized into four sections cover oral traditions poetry drama non fiction fiction and other forms of Indigenous American writing from the seventeenth through the twenty first century. Part I attends to literary histories across a range of communities providing for example analyses of Inuit Chicana o Anishinaabe and M tis literary practices. Part II draws on earlier disciplinary and historical contexts to focus on specific genres as authors discuss Indigenous non fiction emergent trans Indigenous autobiography Mexicanoh and Spanish poetry Native drama in the U S and Canada and even a new Indigenous children's literature canon. The third section delves into contemporary modes of critical inquiry to expound on politics of place comparative Indigenism trans Indigenism Native rhetoric and the power of Indigenous writing to communities of readers. A final section thoroughly explores the geographical breadth and expanded definition of Indigenous American through detailed accounts of literature from Indian Territory the Red Atlantic the far North Yucat n Amerika Samoa and Francophone Quebec. Together the volume is the most comprehensive and expansive critical handbook of Indigenous American literatures published to date. It is the first to fully take into account the last twenty years of recovery and scholarship and the first to most significantly address the diverse range of texts secondary archives writing traditions literary histories geographic and political contexts and critical discourses in the field

Fragments of Truth Naomi Angel, 2022-08-15 In 2008 the Canadian government established a Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC to review the history of the residential school system a brutal colonial project that killed and injured many Indigenous children and left a legacy of trauma and pain In Fragments of Truth Naomi Angel analyzes the visual culture of reconciliation and memory in relation to this complex and painful history In her analyses of archival photographs from the residential school system representations of the schools in popular media and literature and testimonies from TRC proceedings Angel traces how the TRC served as a mechanism through which memory trauma and visibility became apparent She shows how many Indigenous communities were able to use the TRC process as a way to claim agency over their memories of the schools Bringing to light the ongoing costs of transforming settler states into modern nations Angel demonstrates how the TRC offers a unique optic through which to survey the long history of colonial oppression of Canada's Indigenous populations

Methodological Challenges in Nature-Culture and Environmental History Research Jocelyn Thorpe, Stephanie Rutherford, L. Anders Sandberg, 2016-11-10 This book examines the challenges and possibilities of conducting cultural environmental history research today Disciplinary commitments certainly influence the questions scholars ask and the ways they seek out answers but some methodological challenges go beyond the boundaries of any one discipline The book examines how to account for the fact that humans are not the only actors in history yet dominate archival records how to attend to the non visual senses when traditional sources offer only a two dimensional non sensory version of the past how to decolonize research in and beyond the archives and how effectively to use sources and means of communication made available in the digital age This book will be a valuable resource for those interested in environmental history and politics sustainable development and historical geography

New Perspectives on Native North America Sergei Kan, Pauline Turner Strong, Raymond Fogelson, 2006-01-01 In this volume some of the leading scholars working in Native North America explore contemporary perspectives on Native culture history and representation Written in honor of the anthropologist Raymond D Fogelson the volume charts the currents of contemporary scholarship while offering an invigorating challenge to researchers in the field The essays employ a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and range widely across time and space The introduction and first section consider the origins and legacies of various strands of interpretation while the second part examines the relationship among culture power and creativity The third part focuses on the cultural construction and experience of history and the volume closes with essays on identity difference and appropriation in several historical and cultural contexts Aimed at a broad interdisciplinary audience the volume offers an excellent overview of contemporary perspectives on Native peoples

Clearing a Path Nancy Shoemaker, 2014-05-22 Clearing a Path offers new models and ideas for exploring Native American history drawing from disciplines like history anthropology and creative writing making this a must read for anyone interested in the history of indigenous peoples

Life Stages and Native Women Kim Anderson, 2012-08-20 A rare and inspiring guide to the health and well being of Aboriginal women and their communities The process of digging up medicines of rediscovering the stories of the past serves as a powerful healing force in the decolonization and recovery of Aboriginal communities In Life Stages and Native Women Kim Anderson shares the teachings of fourteen elders from the Canadian prairies and Ontario to illustrate how different life stages were experienced by Metis Cree and Anishinaabe girls and women during the mid twentieth century These elders relate stories about their own lives the experiences of girls and women of their childhood communities and customs related to pregnancy birth post natal care infant and child care puberty rites gender and age specific work roles the distinct roles of post menopausal women and women's roles in managing death Through these teachings we learn how evolving responsibilities from infancy to adulthood shaped women's identities and place within Indigenous society and were integral to the health and well being of their communities By understanding how healthy communities were created in the past Anderson explains how this traditional knowledge can be applied toward rebuilding healthy Indigenous communities today

In/visible Sight Angela Wanhalla, 2015-12-24 In visible Sight is a fascinating exploration of a little known part of our history the lives of part M ori part P keh New Zealanders in the nineteenth century Focussing on interracial intimacy between Ng i Tahu and P keh settlers it explores how intermarriage played a key role in shaping colonial encounters As Ng i Tahu sought to fight the alienation of their land and protect their natural resources marriage practices and kinship networks became an increasingly important way to control interaction with P keh The book also explores the contradictions and ambiguities of mixed descent lives offering new insights into New Zealand's colonial past Paddling Her Own Canoe Veronica Strong-Boag, Carole Gerson, 2017-06-22 Frequently dismissed as a nature poet and an Indian Princess E Pauline Johnson 1861 1913 was not only an accomplished thinker and writer but a contentious and passionate personality who talked back to Euro Canadian culture Paddling Her Own Canoe is the only major scholarly study that examines Johnson's diverse roles as a First Nations champion New Woman serious writer and performer and Canadian nationalist A Native advocate of part Mohawk ancestry Johnson was also an independent self supporting unmarried woman during the period of first wave feminism Her versatile writings range from extraordinarily erotic poetry to polemical statements about the rights of First Nations Based on thorough research into archival and published sources this volume probes the meaning of Johnson's energetic career and addresses the complexities of her social racial and cultural position While situating Johnson in the context of turn of the century Canada the authors also use current feminist and post colonial perspectives to reframe her contribution Included is the first full chronology ever compiled of Johnson s writing Pauline Johnson was an extraordinary woman who crossed the racial and gendered lines of her time and thereby confounded Canadian society This study reclaims both her writings and her larger significance

The Deadly Politics of Giving Seth Mallios,2006-08-20 A clash of cultures on the North American continent With a focus on indigenous cultural systems and agency theory this volume analyzes Contact Period relations between North American Middle Atlantic Algonquian Indians and the Spanish Jesuits at Ajacan 1570 72 and English settlers at Roanoke Island 1584 90 and Jamestown Island 1607 12 It is an anthropological and ethnohistorical study of how European violations of Algonquian gift exchange systems led to intercultural strife during the late 1500s and early 1600s destroying Ajacan and Roanoke and nearly destroying Jamestown

Colonialism on the Prairies Blanca Tovias,2012-07-23 This book spans a century in the history of the Blackfoot First Nations of present day Montana and Alberta It maps out specific ways in which Blackfoot culture persisted amid the drastic transformations of colonisation with its concomitant forced assimilation in both Canada and the United States It portrays the strategies and tactics adopted by the Blackfoot in order to navigate political cultural and social change during the hard transition from traditional life ways to life on reserves and reservations Cultural continuity is the thread that binds the four case studies presented encompassing Blackfoot sacred beliefs and ritual dress practices the transmission of knowledge and the relationship between oral stories and contemporary fiction Blackfoot voices emerge forcefully from the extensive array of primary and secondary sources consulted resulting in an inclusive history wherein Blackfoot and non Blackfoot scholarship enter into dialogue Blanca Tovias combines historical research with literary criticism a strategy that is justified by the interrelationship between Blackfoot history and the stories from their oral tradition Chapters devoted to examining cultural continuity discuss the ways in which oral stories continue to inspire contemporary Native American fiction This interdisciplinary study is a celebration of Blackfoot culture and knowledge that seeks to revalourise the past by documenting Blackfoot resistance and persistence across a wide spectrum of cultural practice The volume is essential reading for all scholars working in the fields of Native American studies colonial and postcolonial history ethnology and literature

Tracing Ochre Fiona Polack,2018-06-12 The supposed extinction of the Indigenous Beothuk people of Newfoundland in the early nineteenth century is a foundational moment in Canadian history Increasingly under scrutiny non Indigenous perceptions of the Beothuk have had especially dire and far reaching ramifications for contemporary Indigenous people in Newfoundland and Labrador Tracing Ochre reassesses popular beliefs about the Beothuk Placing the group in global context Fiona Polack and a diverse collection of contributors juxtapose the history of the Beothuk with the experiences of other Indigenous peoples outside of Canada including those living in former British colonies as diverse as Tasmania South Africa and the islands of the Caribbean Featuring contributions of Indigenous and non Indigenous thinkers from a wide range of scholarly and community backgrounds Tracing Ochre aims to definitively shift established perceptions of a people who were among the first to confront European colonialism in North America

Holding Our World Together Brenda J. Child, 2012-02-16 A groundbreaking exploration of the remarkable women in Native American communities Too often ignored or underemphasized in favor of their male warrior counterparts Native American women have played a more central role in guiding their nations than has ever been understood Many Native communities were in fact organized around women s labor the sanctity of mothers and the wisdom of female elders In this well researched and deeply felt account of the Ojibwe of Lake Superior and the Mississippi River Brenda J Child details the ways in which women have shaped Native American life from the days of early trade with Europeans through the reservation era and beyond The latest volume in the Penguin Library of American Indian History Holding Our World Together illuminates the lives of women such as Madeleine Cadotte who became a powerful mediator between her people and European fur traders and Gertrude Buckanaga whose postwar community activism in Minneapolis helped bring many Indian families out of poverty Drawing on these stories and others Child offers a powerful tribute to the many courageous women who sustained Native communities through the darkest challenges of the last three centuries

Captive Selves, Captivating Others Pauline Turner Strong, 2018-02-19 This book considers two key typifications within the Anglo American captivity tradition the Captive Self and the Captivating Other It analyzes a hegemonic tradition of representation and illuminates the processes through which typifications are constructed made authoritative and transformed
