Josua und Salomo puts forward the thesis that the literary figure of the successor was created by circles who strongly relied on the book of Deuteronomy In order to construct the ideal of a successor they used the characters of Joshua and Solomon and implemented the results of their theological reflection which were unleashed by the complete destruction of the pre exilic political social and religious organization of the nation The figure of Joshua combines all the treats of their theological conception of an ideal political leader whereas the figure of Solomon demonstrates the dangers which are implied in monarchical succession From the theological perspective of deuteronomism Solomon and Joshua are opposite characters The deuteronomic concepts of God and authority play a central role for the reflection on both characters The Social History of Ancient Israel Rainer Kessler, An accessible social history of ancient Israel designed for Old Testament courses Includes a timeline and glossary of terms Sociology of Giving Helmuth Berking, 1999-03-30 This book decodes the ambivalence of gift giving It examines its socio ethical and integrative potential Following a short recollection of contemporary gift giving its motives occasions and its rules the reader is invited to travel back in time and space examining sacrifice food sharing and gift giving as those basic institutions upon which symbolic orders of traditional society rely The historical invention of hospitality is considered and paves the way to an analysis of the anthropology of giving Berking goes on to explore the transition from traditional society to the market self interest form He questions the view that our societies are dominated by individualism and explores the contemporary interplay between self interest and the common good Familie, Staat und Gesellschaftsformation / Family, State and the Formation of Society Joachim Herrmann, Jens Köhn, 2022-08-01 No detailed description available for Familie Staat und Gesellschaftsformation Family State and the Formation of Society

Industiarlization before Industiarlization Peter Kriedte, Hans Medick, Jurgen Schlumbohm, 1982-01-28 Beginning in the late Middle Ages and accelerating in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries there developed in many rural regions of Europe a domestic industry mass producing craft goods for distant markets This book presents an analysis of this industrialization before industrialization and considers the question whether it constituted a distinct mode of production different from the preceding feudal economy and from subsequent industrial capitalism or was part of a process of continuous evolution characterized by the spread of wage labour and the penetration of capitalism into the process of production It is a full scale attempt to take a look at the place of proto industrialization in the genesis of capitalism and will interest economic and social historians as well as anthropologists sociologists and others concerned with the development of capitalism Axial Civilizations And World History J©dhann P©Łll © rnason, S.
