Sense Of Place A Sense Of Time A:

Experience, Evidence, and Sense Anna Wierzbicka, 2010-06-24 This book is based on two ideas first that any language English no less than any other represents a universe of meaning shaped by the history and experience of the men and women who have created it and second that in any language certain culture specific words act as linchpins for whole networks of meanings and that penetrating the meanings of those key words can therefore open our eyes to an entire cultural universe In this book Anna Wierzbicka demonstrates that three uniquely English words evidence experience and sense are exactly such linchpins Using a rigorous plain language approach to meaning analysis she unpacks the dense cultural meanings of these key words disentangles their multiple meanings and traces their origins back to the tradition of British empiricism In so doing she reveals much about cultural attitudes embedded not only in British and American English but also English as a global language An interdisciplinary work Experience Evidence and Sense will be of interest to both scholars and students in linguistics and English as well as historians of ideas sociologists anthropologists literary scholars and scholars of communication

Sense of Place, Health and Quality of Life Allison Williams, 2016-12-05 A significant body of theoretical and empirical studies describes sense of place as an outcome of interconnected psychological social and environmental processes in relation to physical place s Sense of place has been examined particularly in human geography in terms of both the character intrinsic to a place as a localized bounded and material entity and the sentiments of attachment detachment that humans experience and express in relation to specific places Scholars in a wide range of disciplines are increasingly exploring the relationship between place and health and recently the field of public health has been encouraged to recognize sense of place as a potential contributing factor to well being It is evident that over the last few decades sense of place has developed into a versatile construct This important book brings together work related to sense of place and health broadly defined from the perspective of a variety of fields and disciplines It will give the reader an understanding of both the range of applications of this construct within approaches to human health as well as the breadth of research methodologies employed in its investigation

Placemaking and the Arts Jennifer Allen Craft, 2018-10-30 What role does place play in the Christian life In this STA volume Jennifer Allen Craft gives a practical theology of the arts contending that the arts place us in time space and community in ways that encourage us to be fully and imaginatively present in a variety of contexts the natural world our homes our worshiping communities and society

A Sense of Place Annie Davy, 2019-02-07 Tried and tested accessible strategies that support the wellbeing and learning journey of children through mindfulness with a focus on learning outdoors and connecting with the world Being outside and connecting with nature is key to young children s learning and wellbeing especially in a busy fast changing and digitalised world Outdoors children can more easily connect to their bodies and learn about themselves and others and how to be in the world They use their senses to explore understand and become mindful of the earth and the people around them But how can Early Years practitioners best support young children as they engage with nature while also passing on the values about the future of the planet A Sense of Place is an easily accessible guide that will make outdoor learning more interesting and fun while also supporting children s development of resilience and resourcefulness so that they can survive and thrive in the world as they grow Proceedings of 5th International Conference on Civil Engineering and Architecture Thomas Kang,2023-10-04 This book states that the proceedings gathers selected papers from 2022 5th International Conference on Civil Engineering and Architecture ICCEA 2022 which was held in Hanoi Vietnam on December 16 18 2022 The conference is the premier forum for the presentation of new advances and research results in the fields of theoretical experimental and practical civil engineering and architecture And this proceedings from the conference mainly discusses architectural design and project management environmental protection and spatial planning design and analysis of building materials and structural engineering and safety And these materials can be useful and valuable sources for researchers and professionals working in the field of civil engineering and architecture A Sense of Place: Regional American Literature , Architecture Martin van der Linden,2021-03-12 The question of what architecture is answered in this book with one sentence Architecture is space created for human activities The basic need to find food and water places these activities within a larger spatial field Humans have learned and found ways to adjust to the various contextual difficulties that they faced as they roamed the earth Thus rather than adapting humans have always tried to change the context to their activities Humanity has looked at the context not merely as a limitation but rather as a spatial situation filled with opportunities that allows through intellectual interaction to change these limitations Thus humanity has created within the world their own contextual bubble that firmly stands against the larger context it is set in The key notion of the book is that architecture is space carved out of and against the context and that this process is deterministic Old Wheelways Robert L. McCullough,2015-10-02 How American bicyclists shaped the landscape and left traces of their journeys for us in writing illustrations and photographs In the later part of the nineteenth century American bicyclists were explorers cycling through both charted and uncharted territory These wheelmen and wheelwomen became keen observers of suburban and rural landscapes and left copious records of their journeys in travel narratives journalism maps photographs illustrations They were also instrumental in the construction of roads and paths wheelways building them funding them and lobbying legislators for them Their explorations shaped the landscape and the way we look at it yet with few exceptions their writings have been largely overlooked by landscape scholars and many of the paths cyclists cleared have disappeared In Old Wheelways Robert McCullough restores the pioneering cyclists of the nineteenth century to the history of American landscapes McCullough recounts marathon cycling trips around the Northeast undertaken by hardy cyclists who then describe their journeys in such magazines as The Wheelman Illustrated and Bicycling World the work of illustrators including Childe Hassam before his fame as a painter efforts by cyclists to build better rural roads and bicycle paths and conflicts with park planners including the famous Olmsted Firm who often opposed separate paths for bicycles Today's ubiquitous bicycle lanes owe their origins to nineteenth century versions including New York City's asphalt ribbons Long before there were rails to trails there was a movement to adapt existing passageways including aqueduct corridors trolley rights of way and canal towpaths for bicycling The campaigns for wheelways McCullough points out offer a prologue to nearly every obstacle faced by those advocating bicycle paths and lanes today McCullough's text is enriched by more than one hundred historic images of cyclists often attired in skirts and bonnets suits and ties country lanes and city streets

Creating a Sense of Place in School Environments Sun-Young Rieh, 2020-04-01 Creating a Sense of Place in School Environments guides its readers to the characteristics that tend to generate a sense of place through children's vivid descriptions of their school and provides a body of critical information that can be employed to design a better school environment that can imprint cherished childhood memories The childhood school environment calls for special attention regarding the sense of place it creates The sense of place in childhood both affects children's current quality of life and frames their lasting world view It is well known that children's cognitive development is closely related to their place attachment to their surroundings and that children's adaptation to a given environment depends on how such place attachment can be created Therefore it is natural that people's identity in the world is the accumulation of their experience of place while in childhood Cross checking between the imprint of adults' memories of places in school and children's current lived experience of their favorite school place confirmed that certain spatial configurations which the author herein refers to as place generators can generate positive attributes of physical settings that construct a sense of place and last as lifelong memories It is an ideal read for academics students and professionals

General Technical Report NE ,1980 Out of Place John B. Lyon,2013-02-28 In late nineteenth century Germany the onset of modernity transformed how people experienced place In response to increased industrialization and urbanization the expansion of international capitalism and the extension of railway and other travel networks the sense of being connected to a specific place gave way to an unsettling sense of displacement Out of Place analyzes the works of three major representatives of German Realism Wilhelm Raabe Theodor Fontane and Gottfried Keller within this historical context It situates the perceived loss of place evident in their texts within the contemporary discourse of housing and urban reform but also views such discourse through the lens of twentieth century theories of place Informed by both phenomenological Heidegger and Casey as well as Marxist Deleuze Guattari and Benjamin approaches to place John B Lyon highlights the struggle to address issues of place and space that reappear today in debates about environmentalism transnationalism globalization and regionalism Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto,Shelley

Hannigan,Bernadette Walker-Gibbs,Emma Charlton,2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space

Outdoor Environmental Education in Higher Education Glyn Thomas, Janet Dymont, Heather Prince, 2021-11-01 This book brings together an international group of authors to discuss the outdoor environmental education OEE theory and practice that educators can use to support teaching and learning in higher education The book contents are organised around a recently established list of threshold concepts that can be used to describe the knowledge and skills that university students would develop if they complete a major in outdoor education There are six key sections the theoretical foundations and philosophies of OEE the pedagogical approaches and issues involved in teaching OEE the ways in which OEE is a social cultural and environmental endeavour how outdoor educators can advocate for social justice key approaches to safety management and the need for on going professional practice The threshold concepts that form the premise of the book describe outdoor educators as creating opportunities for experiential learning using pedagogies that align their programme s purpose and practice Outdoor educators are place responsive and see their work as a social cultural and environmental endeavour They advocate for social and environmental justice and they understand and apply safety principles and routinely engage in reflective practice This book will provide clarity and direction for emerging and established outdoor educators around the world and will also be relevant to students and professionals working in related fields such as environmental education adventure therapy and outdoor recreation

Italian American Poetics of Place Sabrina Vellucci, 2024-11-19 This volume examines the significance of place in contemporary Italian American literature from an ecocritical perspective It fills a gap in the theoretical discourse on Italian American culture whose concerns about environmental justice have been mostly overlooked From mid twentieth century poets such as John Ciardi and Diane di Prima to late twentieth and twenty first century fiction writers such as Carole Maso and Salvatore Scibona the study combines Italian American literary criticism with the spatial turn that over the last decades has asserted the interpretive significance of place and the environment in literary texts Questioning the prejudice that sees Italian American culture as detached from ecological issues these works show that such diasporic heritage has helped forge different modes of relationship and new forms of expression in contact with the American land Their relevance lies not so much in defining or redefining Italian American ethnicity but in forging ideas and futures beyond their immediate framework and subject matter By focusing on the intersection of gender and ethnicity with local and transnational spaces and aesthetic practices Italian American Poetics of Place contributes to the growing field of inquiry that explores the resources of the literary in laying the basis for more dialogic and inclusive forms of awareness and community with both the human and other than human

Community and ageing Simon Evans, 2009-09-02 Specialist forms of housing with care are becoming increasingly popular in the United Kingdom largely as a result of the ageing of the population and the relative wealth of the latest generation of older people Retirement villages and extra care housing are two models of provision that have seen particularly spectacular growth This is partly because in many ways they are perceived to promote government agendas for increasing independence and wellbeing for older people They also aim to meet older people s aspirations for a good quality of life in their retirement years and to live somewhere they feel they belong Many such housing developments are marketed as communities of like minded people offering security peace of mind a range of facilities and new opportunities for friendship and social interaction This important book investigates changing concepts and experiences of community across the lifecourse and into older age and how they play out in housing with care settings An overview of how the housing with care sector has developed both in the UK and internationally is provided The book emphasizes the central importance of a sense of community for older people s quality of life and explores the impact of a range of factors including social networks inclusive activities diversity and the built environment The book will be of particular interest to students in the fields of gerontology social policy housing planning the built environment and community development It will also appeal to academics policy makers practitioners service providers and researchers both in the UK and other countries with similar housing with care options including the USA Australia and New Zealand

Place and Spirit in Taiwan Alessandro Dell'Orto, 2003-08-29 Based on field work in Taiwan this book examines the ancient indigenous religious cult of Tudi Gong both as a religio social phenomenon and as an appropriate medium for exploring and analysing the social changes that have been occurring in contemporary Taiwan and the people s strategic adaptations to these changes In this comprehensive ethnography of Tudi Gong Dell Orto engages in a theoretical discussion of the practices processes and strategies of ethnography and ethnographic writing and contributes to the construction of an anthropology of place by analysing a number of key concepts related to the notion of place and space The study combines the use of personal ethnography with raconteurs own accounts as a way of tracing senses of place and memories of the past This is a pioneering foundation text for an anthropology of non domestic place and space and brings the most important recent work of social geographers into the field of anthropology
