Containment Culture Alan Nadel,1995-11-20 Alan Nadel provides a unique analysis of the rise of American postmodernism by viewing it as a breakdown in Cold War cultural narratives of containment These narratives which embodied an American postwar foreign policy charged with checking the spread of Communism also operated Nadel argues within a wide spectrum of cultural life in the United States to contain atomic secrets sexual license gender roles nuclear energy and artistic expression Because these narratives were deployed in films books and magazines at a time when American culture was for the first time able to dominate global entertainment and capitalize on global production containment became one of the most widely disseminated and highly privileged national narratives in history Examining a broad sweep of American culture from the work of George Kennan to Playboy Magazine from the movies of Doris Day and Walt Disney to those of Cecil B DeMille and Alfred Hitchcock from James Bond to Holden Caulfield Nadel discloses the remarkable pervasiveness of the containment narrative Drawing subtly on insights provided by contemporary theorists including Baudrillard Foucault Jameson Sedgwick Certeau and Hayden White he situates the rhetoric of the Cold War within a gendered narrative powered by the unspoken potency of the atom He then traces the breakdown of this discourse of containment through such events as the Bay of Pigs invasion and the Free Speech Movement at Berkeley and ties its collapse to the onset of American postmodernism typified by works such as Catch 22 and The Man Who Shot Liberty Valence An important work of cultural criticism Containment Culture links atomic power with postmodernism and postwar politics and shows how a multifarious national policy can become part of a nation's cultural agenda and a source of meaning for its citizenry

The Home Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2022-07-19 Often referred to as a sociological study, The Home: Its Work and Influence written by Charlotte Perkins Gilman and published in 1903 is an examination of the traditional household structure and the repression of women within a domestic role. Ahead of her time on feminist issues and women's suffrage, the author criticises the assumed domesticity of women in the early part of the 20th century. Gilman argues that liberating women and men for that matter and enabling them to gain economic independence is an essential ingredient for improving a marriage, family, and their role as a parent, improving not only classic domestic setups but racial inequality too. In The Home, Gilman focuses on key topics such as cooking, domestic ethics, and children in an effort to show how every household could benefit the entire family unit as well as society at large. This book is perfect for those interested in gaining insight into women's place in society in the early 20th century. Charlotte Perkins Gilman, also known as Charlotte Perkins Stetson, was born on 3rd July 1860 in Connecticut, USA. Her early family life was troubled with her father abandoning his wife and family, a move which strongly influenced her feminist political leanings and advocacy of women's rights. After working as a tutor and painter, Perkins, a self-declared humanist and tomboy, began to work as a writer of short stories, novels, non-fiction pieces, and poetry. Her best-known work is her semi-autobiographical short story inspired by her postnatal depression, entitled The Yellow Wallpaper, which was published in 1892 and made into a film in 2011. Gilman was a member of the American National Women's Hall of Fame and a strong believer that the domestic environment oppressed women through the patriarchal beliefs upheld by society. A believer in euthanasia, she was diagnosed with incurable breast cancer in January 1932 and subsequently took her own life in August 1935, writing in her suicide note that she chose chloroform over cancer. Selected Charlotte Perkins Gilman Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2025-07-03 Deep dive into the impressive collection of works from the trailblazing 20th-century feminist Charlotte Perkins Gilman. From her semi-autobiographical The Yellow Wallpaper written after a severe bout of postpartum psychosis to her utopian feminist novel Moving the Mountain, Selected Charlotte Perkins Gilman is the perfect companion for history buffs looking to delve into the early beginnings of feminist theory. Ideal for fans of Helena Bonham Carter and Carey Mulligan in Netflix's acclaimed Suffragette film, Charlotte Perkins Gilman (1860-1935) was an American humanist writer and advocate for social reform. She is considered today a utopian feminist and served as a role model for later feminists with her unorthodox concepts and lifestyle. Her works are celebrated for offering new perspectives on gender issues and include the semi-autobiographical short story The Yellow Wallpaper, Women and Economics, and Forerunner. She was inducted into the National Women's Hall of Fame and remains today a huge influence on feminist thinking of the early 20th century. The Humanness of Women Charlotte Perkins Gilman, 2017-11-15 Women and Economics subtitled as A
