Servants Of The People:

Servants of the Servant Don N. Howell, 2003-11-14 Leadership is a subject that has gained impressive visibility in the past two decades. The number of books, monographs, and articles as well as seminars devoted to the development of one's leadership skills has been almost exponential growth. This study is an attempt to forge a full-orbed theology of Christian leadership grounded in the teaching of Scripture. What emerges from tracing the theme of leadership through the biblical record is a servanthood pattern, one that is wholly distinct from prevailing secular models. Our exposition begins with the biblical language of the servant, the term of choice for those great leaders used of God to further his saving purposes in the world. Eleven Old Testament and five New Testament leaders are profiled. The portrait of Jesus Christ focuses on three motifs that governed his training of the twelve for kingdom ministry. The Pauline letters are mined for those convictions that governed Paul's practice of leadership, both of his mission team and of the faith communities that emerged from that mission. The treatment of each leader, from Joseph to Paul, begins with a series of preliminary questions and concludes with a mini-profile that correlates the biblical data with these questions. The final chapter offers a summary profile of the servant leader, one whose character, motives, and agenda align with the divine purposes. Though designed as a textbook for upper-level college and seminary courses on leadership, the book's readable format is ideal for churches and parachurch organizations in their leadership training programs. The author's prayer is that this work will serve as a catalyst to call God's people back to Scripture and thereby raise up a whole new generation of authentic servant leaders.

Servants of the Underground

David Ssembajjo, 2011-05-01 In a bid to take a stand against the brutal dictator Bamutu Kalamachi, who opens up Cafe Royale, which becomes the site of revolutionary speeches, a place of trade, a rendezvous point for lovers, a place to settle conflicts, and where discussions to topple Bamutu are made. When the dictator realises that his rule is under threat, he orders his troops to end all political opposition against him. A love tussle ensues between Bamutu and Kalamachi, who are both in love with Malita. Bamutu forces her into a relationship with him, but she is in love with Kalamachi, who tries to evade the watchmen and troops to gain access to her. Cafe Royale turns into a place where people meet to discuss, write, and distribute leaflets in the underground, which are sold clandestinely in the country to spread awareness of Bamutu's reign of terror. Will the people who gather in Cafe Royale be able to unravel the myth of Bamutu's rule? And will Kalamachi and Malita be reunited? Servants in Love of the Underground is a pacy novel that will appeal to fans of military and political literature. Author David Ssembajjo is inspired by Gabriel Garcia Marquez and his novel The Autumn of the Patriarch.

The Acts and Monuments of John Foxe John Foxe, 1841 From Servants of the Empire to Everyday Heroes Tobias Harper, 2020-02-13 In the twentieth century the British Crown appointed around a hundred thousand people military and civilian in Britain and the British Empire to honours and titles For outsiders and sometimes recipients too these jumbles of letters are tantalizingly confusing OM MBE GCVO CH KB or CBE Throughout the century this system expanded to include different kinds of people while also shrinking in its imperial scope with the declining empire Through these dual processes this profoundly hierarchical system underwent a seemingly counter intuitive change it democratized Why and how did the British government change this system And how did its various publics respond to it This study addresses these questions directly by looking at the history of the honours system in the wider context of the major historical changes in Britain and the British Empire in the twentieth century In particular it looks at the evolution of this hierarchical deferential system amidst democratization and decolonization It focuses on the system s largest and most important components the Order of the British Empire the Knight Bachelor and the lower ranks of other Orders By creatively analysing the politics and administration of the system alongside popular responses to it in diaries letters newspapers and memoirs Tobias Harper shows the many different meanings that honours took on for the establishment dissidents and recipients He also shows the ways in which the system succeeded and failed to order and bring together divided societies

The Servant of the Lord in Isaiah XL-LXVI John Forbes,1890 A Review of the Case of the Civil Servants of the Crown Investigator,1857 Isaiah 53 in the Light of Homecoming After Exile Fredrik Hägglund,2008 In this study Fredrik Hagglund presents an interpretation based on a hypothesis that conflicts emerged between the people in the land of Israel and those who returned from exile He analyzes these conflicts with the help of contemporary refugee studies other texts of the Old Testament and also relevant passages in Isa 40 55 At the end of the exile there was hope that the deported people would return to Israel that it would be rebuilt and that Jerusalem would again flourish This hope is most clearly expressed in Isa 40 1 52 10 However as time went by there was a realization that the envisaged glorious return was in reality a rather limited return and the joy of receiving those who returned had turned into conflicts not least regarding the possession of land and the availability of places to live In this situation someone probably reflected on the message of Isa 40 1 52 10 and sought to understand what had gone wrong Isa 53 was then inserted as an explanation of how the people in the land of Israel i e the we should have received those who returned i e the servant If this embrace had taken place Mother Zion would have rejoiced as described in Isa 54 Instead of these pictures painted for us in Isa 53 and 54 we encounter the reality of the conflicts described in Isa 56 66
