practitioners of essential Christianity whose message speaks directly to contemporary seekers Lost Christianity Jacob Needleman,1990 This classic work on the Christian message speaks directly to all who seek genuine religious experience

Hidden Gospels Philip Jenkins,2002-12-05 This incisive critique thoroughly and convincingly debunks the claims that recently discovered texts such as the Gospel of Thomas the Gospel of Mary and even the Dead Sea Scrolls undermine the historical validity of the New Testament Jenkins places the recent controversies surrounding the hidden gospels in a broad historical context and argues that far from being revolutionary such attempts to find an alternative Christianity date back at least to the Enlightenment By employing the appropriate scholarly and historical methodologies he demonstrates that the texts purported to represent pristine Christianity were in fact composed long after the canonical gospels found in the Bible Produced by obscure heretical movements these texts have attracted much media attention chiefly because they seem to support radical feminist and post modern positions in the modern church Indeed Jenkins shows how best selling books on the hidden gospels have been taken up by an uncritical drama hungry media as the basis for a social movement that could have powerful effects on the faith and practice of contemporary Christianity Maidens, Magic and Martyrs in Early Christianity

Jan N. Bremmer,2017-07-13 In this work Jan N Bremmer aims to bring together the worlds of early Christianity and those of ancient history and classical literature worlds that still all too rarely interlock Contextualising the life and literature of the early Christians in their Greco Roman environment he focusses on four areas A first section looks at more general aspects of early Christianity the name of the Christians their religious and social capital prophecy and the place of widows and upper class women in the Christian movement Second the chronology and place of composition of the early apocryphal Acts of the Apostles and Pseudo Clementines are newly determined by paying close attention to their doctrinal contents but also innovatively to their onomastics and social vocabulary The author also analyses the frequent use of magic in the Acts and explains the prominence of women by comparing the Acts to the Greek novel Third an investigation into the theme of the tours of hell suggests a new chronological order shows that the Christian tours were indebted to both Greek and Jewish models and illustrates that in the course of time the genre dropped a large part of its Jewish heritage The fourth and final section concentrates on the most famous and intriguing report of an ancient martyrdom the Passion of Perpetua It pays special attention to the motivation and visions of Perpetua which are analyzed not by taking recourse to modern theories such as psychoanalysis but by looking to the world in which Perpetua lived both Christian and pagan It is only by seeing the early Christians in their ancient world that we might begin to understand them and their emerging communities Publisher s description Recovering the Ancient Magic Max Freedom Long,2013-04-18 Recovering the Ancient Magic presents the results of an 18 year long study of Huna magic detailing examples of fire walking spiritualism levitation mind reading instant healing and changes in physical material Max Freedom Long spent 14 years in Hawaii studying the secrets of the kahunas of magic His attempts to discover the secrets behind magical ability are detailed in this volume containing his collected data

The Globalization of God Dara Molloy, 2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and polytheism
