Managing Educational Technology Sandra Schamroth Abrams, Xiaojun Chen, Michael Downton, 2018-03-05
Managing Educational Technology examines the ways in which stakeholders from businesses, K-12 schools and universities can influence the quality and success of technology integration in primary and secondary classrooms. Inspired by their experiences in the field as educators, education researchers and technology evaluators, the authors present vignettes that highlight the benefits, demands and limitations often associated with the introduction and integration of educational technologies to K-12 school environments. These examples also underscore the inherent nuances in partnerships among businesses, K-12 schools and universities. Readers can use these rich examples when considering ways to integrate products into schools as well as when discussing, analyzing and evaluating the promises of and challenges in doing so. End of chapter questions guide readers to consider alternate actions and identify steps for additional growth which complement the authors practical suggestions to strengthen business school university partnerships Any reader interested in educational technology educational leadership or business will benefit from this insightful investigation of business school university partnerships
