Sullivan,2016-08-03 When the Chinese Communist Party CCP assumed power in October 1949 China was one of the poorest nations in the world and so weak it had been conquered in the late 1930s and early 1940s by its neighbor Japan a country one 10th its size More than five decades later the People s Republic of China PRC is an emerging economic political and major military power with the world s fastest growing economy and largest population 1 35 billion in 2015 A member of the United Nations Security Council since the early 1970s and a nuclear power China wields enormous influence in the world community while at home what was once a nation of largely poverty stricken peasants and urban areas with little to no industry has been transformed into an increasingly urbanized society with a growing middle class and an industrial and service sector that leads the world in such industries as steel and textiles while becoming a major player in computers and telecommunications All the while the country has remained under the tight political control of a one party system dominated by the Chinese Communist Party that despite periods of intense political conflict and turmoil governs China with a membership in 2014 of 88 million people the largest single organization on earth This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the People s Republic of China contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about China Women and the Nigeria-Biafra War Sussie U. Aham-Okoro,Gloria Chuku,2020-10-07 This first comprehensive study of the Nigeria Biafra War 1967-1970 through the lens of gender explores the valiant and gallant ways women carried out old and new responsibilities in wartime and immediate postwar Nigeria. The book presents women as embodiments of vulnerability and agency who demonstrated remarkable resilience and initiative waging war on all fronts in the face of precarious conditions and scarcities and maximizing opportunities occasioned by the hostilities. Women's experiences are highlighted through critical analyses of oral interviews, memoirs, life histories, fashion and material culture, international legal conventions, music, as well as governmental and non-governmental sources. The book fills the gap in the war scholarship that has minimized women's complex experiences fifty years after the hostilities ended. It highlights the cost of the conflict on Nigerian women, their participation in the hostilities, and their contributions to the survival of families, communities, and the country. The chapters present counter narratives to fictional and nonfictional accounts of the war, especially those written by men which often peripheralize or stereotypically represent women as passive spectators or helpless victims of the conflict, and also highlight and exaggerate women's moral laxity and sensationalize their marital infidelities.

Investigating Women David Skene-Melvin, 1995-12. Female Detectives by Canadian Writers: An Eclectic Sampler. An Introduction to Community Health James McKenzie, R. R. Pinger, Jerome Kotecki, 2011-03-04. New to the Seventh Edition. Productive Aging Nancy Morrow-Howell, James Hinterlong, Michael Sherraden, 2003-05-01. Will 69 million baby boomers suddenly drop out of the workforce when they turn 65? It is difficult to imagine this generation with its talent, education, and experience idling away the last thirty years of life. From the Foreword by Robert N. Butler, M.D., The Mount Sinai Medical Center: Old age has been historically thought of as a period of frailty and dependence, yet studies show that with the help of advances in health and medicine, current populations will live longer and remain healthier than previous generations. As average life expectancies rise, traditional concepts of retirement need to be reconsidered on all levels, from government policy to business practice to individual life planning. In this volume, leaders in the field of gerontology explore these changing conditions through the concept of productive aging, which has been developed by leaders in the field to promote older adults' contributions to society in social and economic capacities. Productive Aging: Concepts and Challenges treats the implications of productive aging for the discipline of gerontology and for society in general. The first section defines the principles, historical perspectives, and conceptual frameworks for productive aging. The second section takes a disciplinary approach, treating the biomedical, psychological, sociological, and economic implications of a more capable older generation. The third section considers advances in theories of gerontology, and the fourth section suggests future directions in practice, theory, and research. Contributors: W. Cutlip,2013-11-05 Based largely on primary sources this book presents the first detailed history of public relations from 1900 through the 1960s The author utilized the personal papers of John Price Jones Ivy L Lee Harry Bruno William Baldwin III John W Hill Earl Newsom as well as extensive interviews conducted by the author himself with Pendleton Dudley T J Ross Edward L Bernays Harry Bruno William Baldwin and more Consequently the book provides practitioners scholars and students with a realistic inside view of the way public relations has developed and been practiced in the United States since its beginnings in mid 1900 For example the book tells how President Roosevelt s reforms of the Square Deal brought the first publicity agencies to the nation s capital Edward L Bernays Ivy Lee and Albert Lasker made it socially acceptable for women to smoke in the 1920s William Baldwin III saved the now traditional Macy s Thanksgiving Day parade in its infancy Ben Sonnenberg took Pepperidge Farm bread from a small town Connecticut bakery to the nation s supermarket shelves and made millions doing it Two Atlanta publicists Edward Clark and Bessie Tyler took a defunct Atlanta bottle club the Ku Klux Klan in 1920 and boomed it into a hate organization of three million members in three years and made themselves rich in the process Earl Newsom failed to turn mighty General Motors around when it was besieged by Ralph Nader and Congressional advocates of auto safety This book documents the tremendous role public relations practitioners play in our nation s economic social and political affairs a role that goes generally unseen and unobserved by the average citizen whose life is affected in so many ways by the some 150 000 public relations practitioners The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985 The International Who's Who of Women 2002 Elizabeth Sleeman,2001 Over 5 500 detailed biographies of the most eminent talented and distinguished women in the world today

How Fascism Ruled Women Victoria de Grazia,1992-03-06 Italy has been made now we need to make the Italians goes a familiar Italian saying Mussolini was the first head of state to include women in this mandate How the fascist dictatorship defined the place of women in modern Italy and how women experienced the Duce s rule are the subjects of Victoria de Grazia s new work De Grazia draws on an array of sources memoirs and novels the images songs and events of mass culture as well as government statistics and archival reports She offers a broad yet detailed characterization of Italian women s ambiguous and ambivalent experience of a regime that promised modernity yet denied women emancipation Always attentive to the great diversity among women and careful to distinguish fascist rhetoric from the practices that really shaped daily existence the author moves with ease from the public discourse about femininity to the images of women in propaganda and commercial culture She analyzes fascist attempts to organize women and the ways in which Mussolini s intentions were received by women as social actors The first study of women s experience under Italian fascism this is also a history of the making of contemporary Italian society
