Children's Theater Wilma Melson Grant, 2021-03-01 If you are an elementary school teacher or parent of an elementary school student who loves the theater but has no theatrical experience Then this book is for you This teacher was the student council advisor for the school and a true lover of the theater who went to the theater often and exposed her students to the theater by helping them raise money in many ways to bring a performing arts traveling theater company of a local college to the school When this college lost their funding and could no longer travel to perform for the various schools in the area the children in this school asked their advisor to organize their very own theater group for the school Well this teacher told them in no uncertain terms that she knew absolutely nothing about acting and would not even know how to begin a drama program Well the children convinced this teacher to at least try So she did This book shows how this teacher through her friends and family members who knew people who knew theatrical people who guided her and showed her how she really could organize a real drama program for her school This book shows the elementary teacher how to teach the children to write their own script from their favorite book in their library Then eventually write their own version of popular stories such as The Wizard of Oz It also shows the teacher how to organize the parents of the students into the essential needs of a drama club by assessing the various talents of the parents and interested members of the faculty This book also shows the drama teacher how to introduce to the students various improvisations and exercises for developing acting skills It also includes the scripts and directions for nine different plays including suggested music all suitable for elementary students In other words it is a book of how an elementary teacher went from having no theatrical experience to how she was able to organize a very successful drama club that was invited to perform for the D A R E conference and the governor at the capitol building in Sacramento California

Music and Image in Concert Meghan Stevens, 2009 In Music and Image in Concert composer graphic designer and writer Meghan Stevens explores the implications to music when images are presented in music concerts But how do artistic directors ensure that listeners aren't more engaged by the images than the music Stevens presents a number of concepts that aim to maintain musical salience over added image in the instrumental music concert This is to avoid the situation that occurs in film where the music is backgrounded and often not heard or not remembered These concepts cover a range of music image characteristics including narrative synchronisation rhythm tempo meaning emotion structure genre integration interpretation voice and text As there is little research in this new field these original concepts draw on a number of other disciplines including film music video multimedia cognitive psychology psychomusicology education and music philosophy This book provides a practical approach for adding image to the music concert
