Bentley,1885      The Mid-Pacific Magazine ,1920      The Cruise of the Mary Rose: Here and There in the Pacific William Henry Giles Kingston,2020-09-28 My family had for centuries owned the same estate handed down from father to son undiminished in size and much increased in value I believe there had been among them in past generations those who feared the Lord I know that my father was a man of true piety Casting all your care upon Him for He careth for you was his favourite motto What a world of doubt and anxiety of plotting and contriving and scheming does this trust in God save those who possess it On this blessed assurance my father took his stand in all the difficulties of life It never failed him and so we his sons had a good training and a godly example The younger members of each generation followed various honourable professions but they failed to rise to high rank in them owing I fancy to a want of worldly ambition the general characteristic of our race Altogether however I believe them to have been a simple minded upright clear sighted set of people who did whatever their hands found to do honestly and with all their might Such people ought to rise it may be said So they do but not to what the world calls the summit They generally rise to a position of independence where they may enjoy fair scope for the exercise of their mental and spiritual faculties There they are content to remain for a time This world is not their rest Another world opens to their view In that they see the goal at which they aim There is the golden crown Why then be distracted by the glittering baubles which are held up to draw their attention from the real jewel the gem without price I am happy in the belief that such was the reason that my ancestors did not become men of much worldly note
