Coastal Passenger Liners of the British Isles Nick Robins, 2011-09-12 At the beginning of the last century it was possible to sail from London to Glasgow via the south coast ports and Belfast returning along the east coast from either Dundee or Leith for as little as five pounds Those were the days when 300 passengers were landed twice weekly at Grangemouth or Dundee from the London boat and the coastal passenger and cargo liner was in its heyday catering both for the first class tourist as well as offering keenly priced second class fares for the like of football fans following away matches Sadly these wonderful steamer services are now largely forgotten but this new book will stir fond memories of the ships and their coastal voyages The Depression of the 1930s coupled with competition from both railway and the motor coach were to spell the end for many of the coastal liners while heavy losses incurred in World War II left only a few ships each offering just a handful of passenger berths The story of their one hundred years of service is accompanied by numerous fascinating anecdotes and the book focuses as much on the social need for coastal passenger services the men and women who provided the services and the passengers who used them as it does on the nuts and bolts of the ships themselves This beautifully presented book will delight both ship enthusiasts and all those who enjoy the maritime and social history of the British Isles

Pacific Coast Miner ,1905 Pacific Coast Ship China Jacques Marc, 2009 Pacific Coast Ship China identifies and dates more than 280 china patterns once used along the Pacific coast of North America in coastal intercoastal and transPacific services It covers china used on vessels and in shore establishments of shipping organizations registered in Alaska Yukon British Columbia Washington Oregon California Idaho and Hawaii In addition to passenger vessels it documents the china used by freighter operations oil companies government services and yacht clubs An important feature of this book is a chapter containing brief histories of 73 companies and government agencies that operated ships on the Pacific coast This easy to use guide is an important resource for collectors divers and anyone interested in the history of Pacific coast transportation or commerce Book Jacket Pacific Marine Review ,1919 The Post-war Merchant Marine ,1944

Ocean Liners of the 20th Century Gordon Newell, 2017-01-12 With his vast collection of photographs and memorabilia combined with his skill as a writer Newell truly makes the ships and memories of them become living personalities How Jack London Count von Luckner Sir Ernest Shackleton and all other intrepid adventurers of the sea would have gloried in this book and present day sea rovers you how you will glory in it Here are the glamour majesty and color of the most exciting things ever built the mammoths of the sea Gordon Newell's salty stories and fine photos bring these monarchs and superliners to life so completely that you hear once more the deep throated whistle blasts as the ships knife their way out of the fog one after another I am not recording affection for the Mauretania as President of the United States but as civilian

Franklin D Roosevelt who loves the sea its ships and the men who sail them writes F D R in his story Queen with a Fighting Heart Author Gordon Newell shares these sentiments The Kronprinz Wilhelm he writes was not a ship to give up easily Night was falling the darkness would give her a fighting chance The last of the fuel was shoveled into the furnaces The worn out engines were breaking their hearts for the ship out of the night she came the sky glowing red above the crowns of her belching funnels The white glow of acres of foam at her bow The guns of the British cruisers swung around Australasian Trade Study ,1981 Ocean Liner Cargo Services Directory Mark Jerome Seidenberg,1987 Seaboard ,1919
