Northwest Lands, Northwest Peoples Dale D. Goble,Paul W. Hirt,2012-03-15 It can be said that all of human history is environmental history for all human action happens in an environment in a place This collection of essays explores the environmental history of the Pacific Northwest of North America addressing questions of how humans have adapted to the northwestern landscape and modified it over time and how the changing landscape in turn affected human society economy laws and values Northwest Lands and Peoples includes essays by historians anthropologists ecologists a botanist geographers biologists law professors and a journalist It addresses a wide variety of topics indicative of current scholarship in the rapidly growing field of environmental history Impacts on Tribal Fish and Wildlife Management Programs in the Pacific Northwest United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2003 Applied Population Biology S.K. Jain,L.W. Botsford,2007-07-23 An increasing variety of biological problems involving resource management conservation and environmental quality have been dealt with using the principles of population biology defined to include population dynamics genetics and certain aspects of community ecology There appears to be a mixed record of successes and failures and almost no critical synthesis or reviews that have attempted to discuss the reasons and ways in which population biology with its remarkable theoretical as well as experimental advances could find more useful application in agriculture forestry fishery medicine and resource and environmental management This book provides examples of state of the art applications by a distinguished group of researchers in several fields The diversity of topics richly illustrates the scientific and economic breadth of their discussions as well as epistemological and comparative analyses by the authors and editors Several principles and common themes are emphasized and both strengths and potential sources of uncertainty in applications are discussed This volume will hopefully stimulate new interdisciplinary avenues of problem solving research

The Management of Marine Regions: The North Pacific Edward Miles,Stephen Gibbs,David Fluharty,Christine Dawson,David Teeter,2021 The North Pacific Project was established at the Institute for Marine Studies University of Washington in September 1976 and was funded by the Rockefeller Foundation This funding eventually covered the period September 1 1976 to August 31 1980 The Project seeks to identify and describe in detail the major marine policy problems of the North Pacific region This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 The Management of Marine Regions Edward L. Miles,1982-01-01

This book and an accompanying atlas complete the first phase of the North Pacific Project. The Project seeks to identify and describe in detail the major marine policy problems of the North Pacific region. Divided into parts: Living resources in the North Pacific; Marine transportation on the North Pacific; Marine scientific research in the North Pacific; Multiple use conditions and conflicts of the North Pacific.

Indigenous Peoples' Governance of Land and Protected Territories in the Arctic Thora Martina Herrmann, Thibault Martin, 2015-12-22. This book addresses critical questions and analyses key issues regarding Indigenous Aboriginal Peoples and governance of land and protected areas in the Arctic. It brings together contributions from scientists, indigenous and non-indigenous researchers, local leaders and members of the policy community that document Indigenous Aboriginal approaches to governance of land and protected areas at the local, regional and international level; explore new territorial governance models that are emerging as part of the Indigenous Aboriginal governance within Arctic States, provinces, territories and regions; analyse the recognition or lack thereof concerning indigenous rights to self-determination in the Arctic; and examine how traditional decision-making arrangements and practices can be linked with governments in the process of good governance. The book highlights essential lessons learned, success stories and remaining issues, all of which are useful to address issues of Arctic governance of land and protected areas today and which could also be relevant for future governance arrangements.

Adaptive Marine Resource Management Systems in the Pacific Milton M. R. Freeman, Yoshiaki Matsuda, Kenneth Ruddle, 1991. First Published in 1991. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informa company.

Review of the State of World Marine Capture Fisheries Management Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2007-01-01. During the first half of the 1990s, in response to the increasing concern about many of the world's fisheries, a number of international fisheries instruments provided an impetus for countries to strengthen their fisheries management. A key step in supporting such efforts is the development of more detailed systematic and comparable information on fisheries environments and management trends The State of World Marine Capture Fisheries Management Questionnaire was developed by FAO in 2004 to help meet this need The results have been grouped by region and are reported in this publication More than a decade later we are able to look back to see how countries responded to examine whether more fisheries are managed and to determine whether the management tools and strategies employed have improved the overall situation in marine capture fisheries Trends in legal and administrative frameworks management regimes and status of marine capture fisheries are analysed for 29 countries in the Pacific Ocean and presented in this report and on the accompanying CD ROM as an easy to read and informative reference for policy decision makers fishery managers and stakeholders
