No two performers have fired the public's imagination as much as the 1982 world ice-dance champions, Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean. This is their story, a fascinating documentary chronicling their rise to the top, including interviews with those who knew them and helped them on the road to success. Included in the programme are the World Championships in 1980, 1982 and 1983 plus the European Championships from Budapest.
