A Salute to One of 'The Few' Simon St. John Beer,2009-02-19 A poignant biography of a pilot who made the ultimate sacrifice in World War II In a quiet churchyard is the grave of an airman who lost his life fighting in the skies over southern England in October 1940 The author happened to come across this grave and after some initial inquiries discovered that nobody in the town was aware that this Battle of Britain pilot lay at rest in their parish Determined to discover more about the short life of this hero he undertook several years of research to craft this biography Peter Cape Beauchamp St John joined the RAF in November 1937 on a four year short service commission at the age of twenty In July 1938 he was posted to No 87 Squadron being equipped with the then new Hawker Hurricane fighter After war had been declared the Squadron was posted to France in support of the British Expeditionary Force becoming operational on September 10 1939 In March 1940 he was transferred to 501 Squadron in Tangmere and then again in April to 74 Squadron as an operational pilot at Hornchurch equipped with Spitfires It was from here that he fought his part in the Battle of Britain For those who may have forgotten The Few this stirring story tells of the all too short life of one of the 544 young men who gave everything to defend Great Britain from Nazi aggression

A Bloody Summer Dan Harvey,2020-07-06 The Battle of Britain regarded by historians as one of the greatest air battles in the history of warfare was an early turning point in the Second World War In the summer of 1940 the German army had with astonishing speed mercilessly swept aside all before them and were perched on the northern coastline of France. Outright victory over all of Europe was impeded only by the expanse of the English Channel. The supremely confident yet to be defeated Luftwaffe German Air Force were eager for continued action to claim air superiority and victory over an outnumbered RAF and clear the skies for the amphibious invasions of Britain and Ireland. It was vital that the RAF deny them and so a ferocious and highly strategic aerial battle began that was to rage for more than three months. Among those in the RAF's Spitfire and Hurricane fighter squadrons were Irishmen who were in the thick of the aerial exchanges, daring dog fights and intrepid interceptions of German bombers. A Bloody Summer: The Irish at the Battle of Britain for the first time tells the true and full story of their heretofore underestimated involvement in this epic aerial encounter. Spitfire Down Dilip Sarkar, 2022-09-15. Profoundly moved by the stories of wartime casualties as a child, Dilip Sarkar has since spent a lifetime reconstructing the lives of many of the fallen and is passionate about recording and sharing this very personal hidden history. In Spitfire Down he explores the stories of thirteen pilots who failed to return, all killed either in action or flying accidents, while a fourteenth, Flying Officer Buck Casson, was brought down by a German ace over France and captured. There is, for example, the virtually unknown story of 'The Baby of the RAF', Sergeant Geoffrey Painting, posted to fly Spitfires with 118 Squadron at RAF Ibsley in Hampshire. Painting was hit by flak during an attack on enemy shipping off Cherbourg on 30 September 1941. Still listed as missing at just 17, he is believed to have been the youngest RAF pilot killed during the Second World War. The author has reconstructed Painting's short life with help from his family and forensically deconstructed that last flight with the help of the now late Wing Commander Peter Howard Williams DFC, who was flying with the teenage pilot that day. The author also explores the heart-rending story of an American trainee fighter pilot, Pilot Officer Jim Bob Lee, whose Spitfire collided with a Wellington bomber over Gloucestershire, resulting in the loss of all airmen involved. Two Canadian pilots perished on Pen y Fan, the highest peak in South Wales. The multi-national effort that defeated Hitler is further emphasised in fact through the stories of both Wing Commander Piotr Laguna and Flying Officer Franek Surma. But perhaps most tragic of all is how lightning struck Joan Welch twice: her first fiancé, Flight Lieutenant Lester Sanders DFC, was killed test flying Spitfires in 1942 and her second, Pilot Officer Ian Smith, was killed flying in Palestine in 1945. Using correspondence, diaries and other personal papers of the pilots concerned, the author has reconstructed their all too brief lives and provided a lasting and profusely illustrated record of these sacrifices.
