Paddy's Road Kevin Keeffe, 2005 Paddy's Road Kevin Keeffe, Patrick L. Dodson, 2003 While Patrick Dodson's bearded image is well known the remarkable history of this outstanding Aboriginal leader has never before been known In Paddy's Road Kevin Keeffe brings us stories of Dodson's life woven from interviews government archives and family stories The Children's Country Stephen Muecke, Paddy Roe, 2020-11-24 In North West Australia between 2009 and 2013 a major Indigenous environmentalist alliance waged a successful campaign to stop a huge industrial development a 45 billion liquefied gas plant proposed by Woodside and its partners The Western Australian government and key Indigenous institutions also pushed hard for this making the custodians of the Country the Goolarabooloo an embattled minority This experimental ethnography documents the Goolarabooloo's knowledge of Country their long history of struggle for survival and the alliances that formed to support them Written in a fictocritical style it introduces a new multirealist kind of analysis that focuses on institutions Indigenous or European their spheres of influence and how they organised to stay alive as alliances shifted and changed The Littoral Zone CA. Cranston, Robert Zeller, 2007 In this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to Australian contexts and their writers Australian and USA scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion The littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands Antarctica There's the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the Wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island New Age literature that appropriates Aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited West a re-examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether Judith Wright's work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the Limestone Plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the Great Barrier Reef in tropic Queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing Soldier Settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to Antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas The author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non-fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as Australia

Post-Imperial Perspectives on Indigenous Education Peter Anderson, Koji Maeda, Zane M. Diamond, Chizu Sato, 2020-10-05 This book explores the impact of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in Japan and Australia where it has heralded change in the rights of Indigenous Peoples to have their histories cultures and lifeways taught in culturally appropriate and respectful ways in mainstream education systems The book examines the impact of imposed education on Indigenous Peoples pre existing education values and systems considers emergent approaches towards Indigenous education in the post imperial context of migration and critiques certain professional development assessment pedagogical approaches and curriculum developments This book will be of great interest to researchers and lecturers of education specialising in Indigenous Education as well as postgraduate students of education and teachers specialising in Indigenous Education Liberating the Will of Australia Geoffrey Burn,2020-08-03 Why do many First People in Australia find themselves continually under siege Why do many interventions fail to produce what was hoped for Why is it that when there have been many positive developments at some deep level nothing seems to have changed Will the Uluru Statement from the Heart ensure the future security of the First Peoples in Australia By developing strands from Christian theology Liberating the Will of Australia answers these questions in a way that gets to the heart of the problem It is shown that the way that the First Peoples were treated by the first European in comers became an indelible part of what Australia currently is This explains why harm is often done even when good is intended and why some problems are too complex to solve But that does not mean that we need to be stuck in the past through deep repentance by the Subsequent Peoples much more than an apology we can take hold of the work of God to bring new things out of what is broken Ultimately this is profoundly hopeful Although focusing on Australia the theological tools developed can be applied in other colonial and post colonial contexts Power and Love Adam Kahane,2010-01-04 The two methods most frequently employed to solve our toughest social problems either relying on violence and aggression or submitting to endless negotiation and compromise are fundamentally flawed This is because the seemingly contradictory drives behind these approaches power the desire to achieve one s purpose and love the urge to unite with others are actually complementary As Dr Martin Luther King Jr put it Power without love is reckless and abusive and love without power is sentimental and anemic But how do you combine them For the last twenty years Adam Kahane of Reos Partners and the University of Oxford has worked around the world on many tough and vital challenges food security health care economic development judicial reform peacemaking climate change In this extraordinary book he draws on this experience to delve deeply into the dual natures of both power and love exploring their subtle and intricate interplay With disarming honesty Kahane relates how through trial and error he has learned to balance them and offers practical guidance for how others can learn that balance as well Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature Anita Heiss,Peter Minter,2014-11-30 In a political system that renders them largely voiceless Australia s Aboriginal people have used the written word as a powerful tool for over two hundred years Anthology of Australian Aboriginal Literature presents a rich panorama of Aboriginal culture history and life through the writings of some of the great Australian Aboriginal authors From Bennelong s 1796 letter to contemporary writing Anita Heiss and Peter Minter have selected works that represent the range and depth of Aboriginal writing in English Journalism petitions and political letters from both the nineteenth and twentieth centuries are brought together with major works of poetry prose and drama

Teaching 'Proper' Drinking? Maggie Brady, 2017-12-12 In Teaching Proper Drinking the author brings together three fields of scholarship socio historical studies of alcohol Australian Indigenous policy history and social enterprise studies The case studies in the book offer the first detailed surveys of efforts to teach responsible drinking practices to Aboriginal people by installing canteens in remote communities and of the purchase of public hotels by Indigenous groups in attempts both to control sales of alcohol and to create social enterprises by redistributing profits for the community good Ethnographies of the hotels are examined through the analytical lens of the Swedish Gothenburg system of municipal hotel ownership The research reveals that the community governance of such social enterprises is not purely a matter of good administration or compliance with the relevant liquor legislation Their administration is imbued with the additional challenges posed by political contestation both within and beyond the communities concerned The idea that community or government ownership and management of a hotel or other drinking place would be a good way to control drinking and limit harm has been commonplace in many Anglophone and Nordic countries but has been less recognised in Australia Maggie Brady s book brings together the hidden history of such ideas and initiatives in Australia In an original and wide ranging set of case studies Brady shows that success in reducing harm has varied between communities largely depending on whether motivations to raise revenue or to reduce harm are in control Professor Robin Room Director Centre for Alcohol Policy Research La Trobe University

Empire, Colony, Genocide A. Dirk Moses, 2008-06-01 In 1944 Raphael Lemkin coined the term genocide to describe a foreign occupation that destroyed or permanently crippled a subject population In this tradition Empire Colony Genocide embeds genocide in the epochal geopolitical transformations of the past 500 years the European colonization of the globe the rise and fall of the continental land empires violent decolonization and the formation of nation states It thereby challenges the customary focus on twentieth century mass crimes and shows that genocide and ethnic cleansing have been intrinsic to imperial expansion The complexity of the colonial encounter is reflected in the contrast between the insurgent identities and genocidal strategies that subaltern peoples sometimes developed to expel the occupiers and those local elites and creole groups that the occupiers sought to co opt Presenting case studies on the Americas Australia Africa Asia the Ottoman Empire Imperial Russia and the Nazi Third Reich leading authorities examine the colonial dimension of the genocide concept as well as the imperial systems and discourses that enabled conquest Empire Colony Genocide is a world history of genocide that highlights what Lemkin called the role of the human group and its tribulations
