Elizabeth Renker

Paeon To Place:

Paeon to Place Lorine Niedecker, Karl Young, 2003 Poetry William Carlos Williams proclaimed Lorine Niedecker the Emily Dickinson of our time It s taken a while for more than a handful of poets with extremely acute ears and sensibilities to see how true that is This is something that comes from the poetry itself not in the projection of Dickinson s semi mythical reclusiveness onto Niedecker but in the way both women wrote poetry that can be read for a lifetime without losing its magic or becoming dull This book produced as a celebration of the author s 100th birthday is the first to follow Niedecker s conception of how her most intensely autobiographical poem should be presented This is the first time Niedecker s work has been thus treated in print The work chronicles her life and the lives of her parents all three of which included great sorrow and loss but Niedecker s clarity and sparkling verse never descend into sentimentality bringing out that which makes life worth living despite its disasters Edited by Cid Corman

Geopoetics in Practice Eric Magrane, Linda Russo, Sarah de Leeuw, Craig Santos Perez, 2019-12-05 This breakthrough book examines dynamic intersections of poetics and geography Gathering the essays of an international cohort whose work converges at the crossroads of poetics and the material world Geopoetics in Practice offers insights into poetry place ecology and writing the world through a critical creative geographic lens This collection approaches geopoetics as a practice by bringing together contemporary geographers poets and artists who contribute their research methodologies and creative writing The 24 chapters divided into the sections Documenting Reading and Intervening poetically engage discourses about space power difference and landscape as well as about human non human and more than human relationships with Earth Key explorations of this edited volume include how poets engage with geographical phenomena through poetry and how geographers use creativity to explore space place and environment This book makes a major contribution to the geohumanities and creative geographies by presenting geopoetics as a practice that compels its agents to take action It will appeal to academics and students in the fields of creative writing literature geography and the environmental and spatial humanities as well as to readers from outside of the academy interested in where poetry and place overlap

Radical Vernacular Elizabeth Willis, 2008-10 When Lorine Niedecker died in 1970 the British poet and critic Basil Bunting eulogized her warmly In England he wrote she was in the estimation of many the most interesting woman poet America has yet produced Aesthetically linked with the New York Objectivist poets Niedecker remained committed to her community in rural Wisconsin despite the grinding poverty that dogged her throughout her life Largely self taught Niedecker formed attachments through her voracious reading and correspondence but she also delighted in the disruptive richness of vernacular usage and in the homegrown improvisational aesthetics that thrived within her immediate world Niedecker wrote from a highly attenuated concern with biological cultural and political sustainability and in her stridently modernist poems anticipated many of the most urgent concerns in twenty first century poetics In Radical Vernacular Elizabeth Willis collects essays by leading poets and scholars that make a major contribution to the study of an important but long overlooked American poet This pathbreaking volume contains essays by seventeen leading scholars Rae Armantrout Glenna Breslin Michael Davidson Rachel Blau DuPlessis Ruth Jennison Peter Middleton Jenny Penberthy Mary Pinard Patrick Pritchett Peter Quartermain Lisa Robertson Elizabeth Robinson Eleni Sikelianos Jonathan Skinner Anne Waldman Eliot Weinberger and Elizabeth Willis      Rigor of Beauty Ian D. Copestake, 2004 William Carlos Williams is widely acknowledged to be among the most important American poets of the twentieth century This collection includes sixteen new essays from many of the world's leading authorities on Williams and is published to commemorate the fortieth anniversary of his death in 1963 The volume contains fresh assessments of the nature and extent of Williams's profound and enduring impact on contemporary American poetic traditions while providing a platform for appraising the neglected achievement of Williams as a writer of fiction and short stories In doing so these and other essays highlight the nature and importance of Williams's relationship to working class life in twentieth century America Additionally the volume groups together studies focusing on the enduring legacy of Williams's long poem Paterson and essays which revise Williams's perceived neglect of African American and Native American culture and history      Defensive Measures Lee Upton, 2005 Much of our strongest poetry that learned its lessons from early modernism lives by its defensive measures that is by means of reversing inverting and challenging in covert ways a dominant perceptual mode Defensive Measures explores strategies by which poets claim their distinctiveness and argues that poetry is the one literary form that most insistently demands a defense It demands a defense it would seem because it is perpetually in crisis not only in regard to its utility and its aesthetic appeal or the vigor of its renunciation of such an appeal but in regard to its generic existence Upton defines a generative conception of defense and examines in a new light the poetry of Lorine Niedecker Elizabeth Bishop Louise Gluck and Anne Carson In writing about Bishop Upton puts this well regarded poet in a new framework aligning her work with that of three poets whose aesthetics might be viewed as antithetical to her own      Lyric Trade Julia Bloch, 2024-04-29 Sometimes the word lyric seems to appear everywhere either it's used interchangeably with the word poetry or it attaches to descriptions of literature art film and even ordinary objects in order to capture some quality of aesthetic appeal or meaning Lyric Trade is not yet another attempt to define the lyric but instead it digs into how poems use lyric in relation to race gender nation and empire Engaging with poets such as Gwendolyn Brooks H D Lorine Niedecker Alice Notley and Myung Mi Kim this book asks What does lyric mean and why should it matter to poets and readers Lyric Trade argues that lyric in the postwar long poem not only registers the ideological contradictions of modernism's insistence on new forms but that it also maps spaces for formal reimaginings of the subject      Modern Ecopoetry, 2020-12-29 Modern Ecopoetry Reading the Palimpsest of the More Than Human World interrogates how humans relation to and confrontation with the nonhuman world is captured in or through poetry It brings together contributions that explore how modern poetry addresses human beings relationship with the natural world mirroring some of the most salient ecopoetic approaches to date This collection is written from very different corners of the globe and significantly adds to the existing body of work because on the one hand it continues to focus on the greening of poetry and on the other it expands its critical implementation in poets not necessarily included in mainstream literary canons by setting them side by side regardless of their cultural background Contributors Aamir Aziz Cristina M G mez Fern ndez Stephen Hock Matilde Mart n Gonz lez Leonor Mar a Mart nez Serrano Mar a Antonia Mezquita Fern ndez Esther S nchez Pardo Catherine Woodward Heather H Yeung Rabia Zaheer Romantic Presences in the

Twentieth Century Mark Sandy,2016-04-08 Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth century British Irish and American artists this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period s influence on the twentieth century Women's Poetry Jo Gill,2007-09-13 This guide examines the production and reception of poetry by a range of women writers predominantly although not exclusively writing in English from Sappho through Anne Bradstreet and Emily Bronte to Sylvia Plath Eavan Boland and Susan Howe Women s Poetry offers a thoroughgoing thematic study of key texts poets and issues analysing commonalities and differences across diverse writers periods and forms The book is alert throughout to the diversity of women s poetry Close readings of selected texts are combined with a discussion of key theories and critical practices and students are encouraged to think about women s poetry in the light of debates about race class ethnicity sexuality and regional and national identity The book opens with a chronology followed by a comprehensive Introduction which outlines various approaches to reading women s poetry Seven chapters follow and a Conclusion and section of useful resources close the book

Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination Michael D. Burke, 2020-12-15 The essays in Maine's Place in the Environmental Imagination address from a variety of perspectives how Maine's unique identity among the states of the United States has been formed and what that identity is A place that is still imagined by others primarily through its environmental associations its nature and landscape rather than through its social arrangements and human history The collection attempts a foundational study not of a regional literature but of a state literature In doing so it makes the case that Maine was constructed imaginatively and environmentally through its literature and that this image is the one that endures even now The essays suggest how this identity was formed by discussing writings ranging from the recently recovered work of Joseph Nicolai a member of the Penobscot Nation in the late 19th century to the contemporary Maine author Carolyn Chute from Thoreau's canonical essay Ktaadn to the modernist E B White whose works have an under appreciated environmental project Contributors include scholars Nathaniel Lewis Annette Kolodny Linda Kornasky Daniel Malachuk Kent Ryden and Lynn Wake

First-person Fictions Mary R. Lefkowitz, 1991 This collection of essays deals with one central problem who is the I in the odes of the ancient Greek poet Pindar Since antiquity the complex and allusive language of the first person statements has provoked many different answers In First Person Fictions Lefkowitz describes the function and nature of Pindar's I statements and offers a controversial solution proposing that the voice of the victory odes is rather than a changing identity the voice of the poet himself Also refuting the traditional belief that the odes were sung by a chorus Lefkowitz shows that in most cases they were sung as solos in the tradition of the Homeric bards Extensively rewritten since their publication as articles these essays are sure to provide a controversial and stimulating approach to the study of Pindar     The Poetics of Postmodernist and Neoromantic Nature Poetry George Leslie Hart,1997     Cornell Studies in Classical Philology ,1900     The Getty Hexameters Christopher A. Faraone,Dirk Obbink,2013-11 Looks in detail at a series of 44 verses inscribed on a recently discovered lead tablet from 5th century BC Sicily This the first complete critical edition of the Greek text to appear in print     Hymnic Narrative and the Narratology of Greek Hymns ,2015-08-11 Ancient Greek hymns traditionally include a narrative section describing episodes from the hymned deity's life These narratives developed in parallel with epic and other narrative genres and their study provides a different perspective on ancient Greek narrative Within the hymn genre the place and function of the narrative section changed over time and with different kinds of hymn literary or cultic religious philosophical or magical Hymnic Narrative and the Narratology of Greek Hymns traces developments in narrative in the hymn genre from the Homeric Hymns via Hellenistic and Imperial hymns to those in the Orphic tradition and in magical papyri analysing them in narratological terms in order to place them in the wider context of ancient Greek narrative literature
