Paganism Surviving in Christianity Abram Herbert Lewis, 1892 Marriage and Its Dissolution in Early Modern England, Volume 2 Torri L Thompson, 2023-08-18 Addresses Early Modern representations of chastity and adultery as well as matrimony and its dissolution in both the private and public realms including the most well known marital dissolution that of Henry VIII and Catherine of Aragon Pagan Virtue in a Christian World Anthony F. D'Elia, 2016-01-04 In 1462 Pope Pius II performed the only reverse canonization in history damning a living man to an afterlife of torment What had Sigismondo Malatesta Lord of Rimini and a patron of the arts done to merit this fate Anthony D Elia shows how the recovery of classical literature and art during the Italian Renaissance led to a revival of paganism The Magazine of Christian Literature, 1893 'Pre-Islamic Survivals' in Muslim Central Asia R. Charles Weller, 2023-04-30 The book traces the conceptual lens of historical cultural survivals from the late 19th century theories of E B Tylor James Frazer and others in debate with monotheistic degenerationists and Protestant anti Catholic polemicists back to its origins in Jewish Christian and Muslim traditions as well as later more secularized forms in the German Enlightenment and Romanticist movements These historical sources particularly the dual faith tradition of Russian Orthodoxy significantly shaped both Tsarist and later Soviet ethnography of Muslim Central Asia helping guide and justify their respective religious missionary social legal political and other imperial agendas They continue impacting post Soviet historiography in complex and debated ways Drawing from European Central Asian Middle Eastern and world history the fields of ethnography and anthropology as well as Christian and Islamic studies the volume contributes to scholarship on syncretism and conversion definitions of Islam history as identity and heritage and more It is situated within a broader global historical frame addressing debates over pre Islamic Survivals among Turkish and Iranian as well as Egyptian North African Berber Black African and South Asian Muslim Peoples while critiquing the legacy of the Geertzian cultural turn within Western post colonialist scholarship in relation to diverging trends of historiography in the post World War Two era Christianity and Paganism in the Fourth to Eighth Centuries Ramsay MacMullen, 1997-01-01 The slaughter of animals for religious feasts the tinkling of bells to ward off evil during holy rites the custom of dancing in religious services these and many other pagan practices persisted in the Christian church for hundreds of years after Constantine proclaimed Christianity the one official religion of Rome In this book Ramsay MacMullen investigates the transition from paganism to Christianity between the fourth and eighth centuries He reassesses the triumph of Christianity contending that it was neither tidy nor quick and he shows that the two religious systems were both vital during an interactive period that lasted far longer than historians have previously believed MacMullen explores the influences of paganism and Christianity upon each other In a rich discussion of the different strengths of the two systems he demonstrates that pagan beliefs were not eclipsed or displaced by Christianity but persisted or were transformed The victory of the Christian church he explains was one not of obliteration but of widening embrace and assimilation This fascinating book also includes new material on the Christian persecution of pagans over the centuries through methods that ranged from fines to crucifixion the mixture of motives in conversion the stubbornness of pagan resistance the difficulty of satisfying the demands and expectations of new converts and the degree of assimilation of Christianity to paganism The Thinker ,1893

The Attributes of God Lewis Richard Farnell,1925 Wooster Alumni Bulletin ,1892 Calendars in the Making: The Origins of Calendars from the Roman Empire to the Later Middle Ages Sacha Stern,2021-04-26 Calendars in the Making investigates the origins of calendars we are most familiar with today yet whose early histories in the Roman and medieval periods are still shrouded in obscurity It examines when the seven day week was standardized and first used for dating and time reckoning in Jewish and other constituencies of the Roman Empire how the Christian liturgical calendar was constructed in early medieval Europe and how and when the Islamic calendar was instituted The volume includes studies of Roman provincial calendars medieval Persian calendar reforms and medieval Jewish calendar cycles Edited by Sacha Stern it presents the original research of a team of leading experts in the field Contributors are Francois de Blois Ilaria Bultrighini Sacha Stern Johannes Thomann Nadia Vidro Immo Warntjes The Publishers Weekly ,1892 Jewish Martyrs in the Pagan and Christian Worlds Shmuel Shepkaru,2006 This book presents a linear history of Jewish martyrdom from the Hellenistic period to the high Middle Ages Following the chronology of sources the study challenges the general consensus that martyrdom was an original Hellenistic Jewish idea Instead Jews like Philo and Josephus internalized the idealized Roman concept of voluntary death and presented it as an old Jewish practice The centrality of self sacrifice in Christianity further stimulated the development of rabbinic martyrology and the talmudic guidelines for passive martyrdom However when forced to choose between death and conversion in medieval Christendom Ashkenazic Jews went beyond these guidelines sacrificing themselves and loved ones Through death not only did they attempt to prove their religiosity but also to disprove the religious legitimacy of their Christian persecutors While martyrs and martyrologies intended to show how Judaism differed from Christianity they in fact reveal a common mindset Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond Diane Fruchtman,2023-02-01 This book demonstrates that living martyrdom was an important spiritual aspiration in the late antique Latin west and argues that consequently attempts to define study or locate martyrdom must move away from conceptualizations that require or center on death After an introduction that traces the persistence of living martyrs as real objects of spiritual devotion and emulation across the span of Christian history and discusses why such martyrs have been overlooked the book focuses on three significant authors from the late ancient Latin west for whom martyrdom did not require death the Spanish poet Prudentius c 348 413 the senator turned ascetic Paulinus of Nola 353 431 and the influential North African bishop Augustine of Hippo 354 430 Through historically and literarily contextualized close readings of their work this book shows that each of these three authors attempted to create a new paradigm of martyrdom focused on living rather than dying for God By focusing on these living martyrs we are able to see more clearly the aspirations and agendas of those who promoted them as martyrs and how their martyrological discourse illuminates the variety of ways that martyrdom is and can be mobilized in any era to construct new community creating worldviews Living Martyrs in Late Antiquity and Beyond is an important resource for historians of Christianity scholars of religious studies and anyone interested in exploring or understanding martyrological discourse The Introduction of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Galatians Reconsidered Neil Martin, 2022-10-20 What would the world look like if the Old Perspective on Paul was right about justification the New Perspective was right about Judaism and the Radical New Perspective was right to note ongoing differences between Jewish and Gentile converts Galatians Reconsidered is a compelling practical study of Paul the Apostle's writing that explores just that Emphasising the central role played by regression in Paul's argument on justification Neil Martin examines the dichotomy between faith and works and how the apostle envisaged the differences in how Jews and Gentiles should interact with the Law By re-establishing Galatians in its original Jewish and pagan context Martin exposes the problems faced by Galatian churches and shows how they still speak to modern churches today His insight not only helps us better appreciate Paul's message but challenges us to put his wisdom into practice in our own church settings Provocative and stimulating Galatians Reconsidered is a robust new look at the question of justification It will leave you with a thorough knowledge of the merits and failings of both the old and new perspectives on Paul as well as a broader understanding of the letter to the Galatians both in the context in which it was written and its continued relevance today
