Scholasticism Catherine Hezser, 2024-12-12 Based on an understanding of scholasticism as a cross cultural phenomenon undertaken by rabbinic Graeco Roman and Christian scholars in late antiquity this book examines the development of Palestinian rabbinic compilations from social historical and literary historical perspectives The book focuses on the compilation of the Talmud Yerushalmi in the context of late antique scholarly practice aimed at preserving past knowledge for future generations This book provides insight into how rabbinic scholarship in the Land of Israel participated in the wider intellectual practices of Roman Byzantine times Beginning with the social educational and legal contexts that generated rabbinic knowledge Catherine Hezser goes on to investigate the oral and written transmission of rabbinic traditions to eventually examine the compilation of the Talmud Yerushalmi with a comparative and redaction historical approach Integrating Palestinian rabbinic education and scholarship into the context of late antique Graeco Roman and Byzantine Christian scholarly practices Catherine Hezser demonstrates how rabbinic compilatory techniques resembled but also differed from those of Hellenistic Roman and Christian scholars The book highlights how rabbinic compilations are idiosyncratic and create a distinct rabbinic identity Overall Hezser argues that rabbinic scholarship was an integral part of late antique intellectual life in the Near Middle East and should be recognized as an Eastern equivalent to Western paideia based forms of scholarship in the Roman Byzantine period and beyond Imperial Rome AD 284 to 363 Jill

Harries,2012-03-07 This book is about the reinvention of the Roman Empire during the eighty years between the accession of Diocletian and the death of Julian Gifts of Clothing in Late Antique Literature Nikki Rollason,2016-07-15 Both clothing and gifts in the ancient world have separately been the subject of much scholarly discussion because they were an integral part of Greek and Roman society and identity creating and reinforcing the relationships which kept a community together as well as delineating status and even symbolising society as a whole They have however rarely been studied together despite the prevalence of clothing gifts in many ancient texts This book addresses a gap in scholarship by focusing on gifts of elite male clothing in late antique literature in order to show that when they appeared in texts these items were not only functioning in an historical or real life sphere but also as a literary space within which authors could discuss ideas of social relationships and authority This book suggests that authors used items which usually formed part of the costume of authority of the period the trabea of the consul the chlamys of the imperial court and the emperor and the pallium of the Christian bishops to over write wearers and donors as confident figures of official authority when this may have been open to doubt
