Marginal Conventions Clinton Sanders, 1990 Marginal Conventions contains twelve essays by social scientists centering around the general connections between popular culture and deviant behavior In addition to speaking to the commonsensical view that exposure to representations of misbehavior makes people misbehave this collection focuses on media presentations of crime violence and villainy the utility of deviance theme for societal elites and the taste publics centered around disreputable products and rituals

Chicano Educational Achievement Elena Aragon de McKissack, 2014-04-23 First published in 2000 This study compares two urban schools based on their ability to provide an effective education for Hispanic students Broderick High School began as an elite Anglo dominated institution and evolved into a school whose student body was 82% Hispanic It is large public and with a history of sporadic racial tension walkouts and a high dropout rate for Hispanic students Escuela Tlatelolco is small private and Chicanocentric Founded in 1970 by Rodolfo Corky Gonzales a leader of the Chicano Civil Rights Movement it was designed to provide Chicano students the opportunity to reinforce pride in their language culture and identity Through interviews of administrators teachers graduates and students at both schools as well as personal observations a significant difference was discovered between the experiences and attitudes of those who attended the public school in the 1960s through 1980s and those who graduated in the 1990s As the public school increased Hispanic administration teaching and operating staff and changed its curriculum to include Hispanic history Hispanic students expressed a greater degree of satisfaction and fulfillment

The Rhetorical Career of Cesar Chavez John C. Hammerback, Richard J. Jensen, 2003-04 Although born into one of the least powerful segments of American society Cesar Chavez led the farm labor movement to unprecedented heights His powerful effect on audiences is well known but award winning scholars John C Hammerback and Richard J Jensen offer the first explanation of how Chavez achieved that effect Although other studies of Chavez exist none has examined so thoroughly his rhetoric nor analyzed in depth such a large number of Chavez's own texts scores of which have previously been unstudied Chavez was an indefatigable speaker writer and non discursive communicator who developed a well thought out approach to his rhetorical discourse and placed his speaking and writing at the very center of his career By merging thought and character in his themes arguments and explanations and in his first and second personae Chavez was able to identify with the character of his listeners That identification induced many audience members to support Chavez's agenda for union activism The authors have developed a model to help explain Chavez's startling transformation of some audiences and persuasion of others Hammerback and Jensen reveal that Chavez's world view motivated him to work tirelessly and directed him to the particular rhetorical qualities and techniques that characterized his discourse The authors also demonstrate Chavez's surprising effectiveness as a rhetor despite his soft spoken style uncharacteristic of most powerful orators
