Therapeutics in Rheumatology H. A. Bird,J. M. H. Moll,A. Rushton,2013-11-11 This book is about the drugs used in the treatment and management of rheumatic disorders The term therapeutics used in the title is intended to mirror the relevance of drugs in the widest sense of the word Thus general principles underlying pharmaceutical and pharmacological study have been included together with more clinical matters concerned with applying specific rheumatic problems The need for another work on rheumatological drugs in itself as opposed to the different approach intended was prompted by the ever continuing and bewildering plethora of antirheumatic drugs flooding the market at present We believe that such a burgeoning of new preparations is welcome in an era when in general there are still no cures available Moreover we also feel that a continued update of this rapidly advancing field is essential not only for its own sake but also to place it in perspective with itself and with neighbouring fields

Clinical Psychology and Medicine Chris Main, 2013-11-11 This book had its origins in a conference organised by the Scottish Association for Behaviour Modification SABM which took place from September 29th to October 2nd 1980 in Pitlochry Scotland The SABM was founded in the early 1970s to fulfil a teaching need and provide a forum at conferences in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland at which mainly clinical psychologists from Scotland and North West England could discuss research There have been four such major conferences over the years and the common feature has been the highlighting of research issues mainly in behavioural psychology At the 4th conference Pitlochry 1980 the general emphasis was on the assessment and treatment of chronic illness although a number of other individual papers were presented Chapters 4 5 8 10 and 11 are based on papers from the full day symposium on clinical psychology and physical illness to which general medical practitioners were invited although Chapter 8 in particular comprises a much wider review paper than the original conference paper and Chapter 13 is also a much extended version of a paper accepted for but not presented at the conference Chapters 15 16 18 and 19 are based on papers comprising the symposium on behavioural approaches to the care of the long stay psychiatric patient Chapters 2 and 3 are based on invited individual papers presented at the conference At the request of the publisher additional material was commissioned Clinical Pharmacology & Therapeutics Paul Turner, C.
