The Painter's Lover Eduardo Manet, 2015-01-15 In this beautifully crafted novel Eduardo Manet a Cubanborn French novelist and playwright tells the story of a woman s passion for a famous artist The artist is his grandfather the painter douard Manet and the woman his grandmother Eva Gonzal s Manet s only pupil and an extraordinary painter in her own right whose profound understanding of the human soul shines through all her work The relationship between Manet and Eva is seen through the eyes and the words of Jeanne Eva s younger sister In her journals she chronicles the vicissitudes of love in a time of war and exile of social and cultural upheaval From the Franco Prussian War through the Paris Commune the fall of the Second Empire and the birth of Impressionism this story celebrates love as a blind blinding yet quintessentially life giving force embodied by the extraordinary Eva She is surrounded by memorable and larger than life characters her beloved sister Jeanne her charismatic Aunt Dolor s the voice of French born Eva s Spanish family Suzanne Leenhoff the somewhat enigmatic wife of her lover Manet and Berthe Morisot her rival in art and in love all presented against the backdrop of the dizzying art world of nineteenth century Paris Art, History, and Postwar Fiction Kevin Brazil, 2018-10-24 Art History and Postwar Fiction explores the ways in which novelists responded to the visual arts from the aftermath of the Second World War to the present day If art had long served as a foil to enable novelists to reflect on their craft this book argues that in the postwar period novelists turned to the visual arts to develop new ways of conceptualizing the relationship between literature and history The sense that the novel was becalmed in the end of history was pervasive in the postwar decades In seeming to bring modernism to a climax whilst repeating its foundational gestures visual art also raised questions about the relationship between continuity and change in the development of art In chapters on Samuel Beckett William Gaddis John Berger and W G Sebald and shorter discussions of writers like Doris Lessing Kathy Acker and Teju Cole this book shows that writing about art was often a means of commenting on historical developments of the period the Cold War the New Left the legacy of the Holocaust Furthermore it argues that forms of postwar visual art from abstraction to the readymade offered novelists ways of thinking about the relationship between form and history that went beyond models of reflection or determination By doing so this book also argues that attention to interactions between literature and art can provide critics with new ways to think about the relationship between literature and history beyond reductive oppositions between formalism and historicism autonomy and context

Art and Revolution John Berger, 2011-07-13 In this prescient and beautifully written book Booker Prize winning author John Berger examines the life and work of Ernst Neizvestny a Russian sculptor whose exclusion from the ranks of officially approved Soviet artists left him laboring in enforced obscurity to realize his monumental and very public vision of art But Berger's impassioned account goes well beyond the specific dilemma of the pre glasnot Russian artist to illuminate the very meaning of revolutionary art In his struggle against official orthodoxy which involved a face to face confrontation with Khrushchev himself Neizvestny was fighting not for a merely personal or aesthetic vision but for a recognition of the true social role of art His sculptures earn a place in the world by reflecting the courage of a whole people by commemorating in an age of mass suffering the resistance and endurance of millions Berger is probably our most perceptive commentator on art A civilized and stimulating companion no matter what subject happens to cross his mind Philadelphia Inquirer The Art Journal ,1852 A Painter's Camp in the Highlands Philip Gilbert Hamerton,2022-05-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1862 Woman's Physical Development Bernarr Macfadden,1903 The Painter and Decorator ,1916 The Portfolio ,1875
