The Artist's Garden Jackie Bennett, 2019-10-29 The Artist's Garden offers an intriguing study into 20 gardens that have inspired and been home to some of the greatest painters of history The most alluring image of an artist at work is surely one where he or she has come out of their studio set up their easel on the garden path pulled on a hat to shade their eyes from the sun and taken their brush and palette in hand This sumptuously illustrated and fascinating book delves into the stories behind the gardens which inspired some of the most beautiful and important works of art These gardens not only supplied the inspiration for creative works but also illuminate the professional motivation and private life of the artists themselves from Cezanne's house in the south of France to Childe Hassam at Celia Thaxter's garden off the coast of Maine. Flowers and gardens have often been the first choice for artists looking for a subject. A garden close to the artist's studio is not only convenient for daily material and ideas but also has the advantage of changing through the seasons and over time. Claude Monet's Giverny was the catalyst for hundreds of great paintings by Monet and other artists, each one different from the one before. Sometimes a whole village becomes the focus for a colony of artists, as at Gerberoy in Picardy and Skagen on the northernmost tip of Denmark. This book is about the real homes and gardens that inspired these great artists, gardens that can still be visited today. The relationship between artist and garden is a complex one. A few artists, including Pierre Bonnard and his neighbour Monet, were keen gardeners as much in love with their plants as their work, while for others like Sorolla in Madrid, his courtyard home was both a sanctuary and a source of ideas. This book is as unmissable for art lovers as it is for anyone who knows the joy of time spent in gardens, offering an intriguing insight into the lives of these great painters and the gardens which inspired them to their creative heights.

Aldous Huxley Annual Bernfried Nugel, 2012-11-28. Aldous Huxley Annual is the official publication of the Aldous Huxley Society at the Center for Aldous Huxley Studies in Münster, Germany. The Society publishes essays on the life times and interests of Aldous Huxley and his circle. It aspires to be the sort of periodical that Huxley would have wanted to read and to which he might have contributed. Aldous Huxley Annual celebrates its 10th anniversary with a special double-numbered issue. The chief contributor on this momentous occasion is Aldous Huxley himself. Volume 10/11 contains a treasure trove of new Huxley items such as letters, poems, stories, talks, proposals, introductions, and playlets, all arranged in chronological order. The contributions date from 1916 and run through 1963, the year of Huxley's death. Moreover, for the first time, Huxley is presented as an accomplished painter; the book's editors are proud to have procured reproductions of five Huxley paintings owned by his grandchildren, Teresa and Mark Trevenen Huxley. The concluding section of the book consists of several articles on particular aspects of Huxley's work.
