Painting Action Art:

Action/abstraction Maurice Berger, 2008 Drawing on recent critical historical and biographical work this lavishly illustrated book offers a sharp new focus on a pivotal art movement It also presents an extensive commentary on the two most influential critics of postwar American art Clement Greenberg and Harold Rosenberg whose powerful views shaped perceptions of Abstract Expressionism and other contemporary art movements In one essay Norman L Kleeblatt traces the influence of Abstract Expressionism into the mid 1970s and examines its connection to subsequent art styles Other essays range from the literary and intellectual culture of New York during that period and an analysis of sculpture and representation to a discussion of Jewish issues in relation to postwar American Art In addition the book features a magisterial essay by eminent critic Irving Sandler and a copiously illustrated cultural timeline by Maurice Berger BOOK JACKET

Action Art John Gray, 1993-05-30 This comprehensive international bibliography is the first to attempt documentation of this diverse field covering the history of Artist s Performance It focuses on its early twentieth century antecedents in such movements as Futurism Dada Russian Constructivism and the Bauhaus as well as its peak period in the 1950s 1960s and 1970s with such developments as Gutai Fluxus Viennese Actionism Situationism and Guerrilla Art Action Major emphasis is also given to sources on 115 individual performance artists and groups More than 3700 entries document print and media materials dating from 1914 to 1992 Organized for maximum accessibility the sources are also extensively cross referenced and are indexed by artist subject title and author Three appendices identify reference works libraries and archives and addenda material not found in the book text and two others list artists by country and by group or collective Artist as

Author Christa Noel Robbins, 2021-06-29 With Artist as Author Christa Noel Robbins provides the first extended study of authorship in mid 20th century abstract painting in the US Taking a close look at this influential period of art history Robbins describes how artists and critics used the medium of painting to advance their own claims about the role that they believed authorship should play in dictating the value significance and social impact of the art object Robbins tracks the subject across two definitive periods the New York School as it was consolidated in the 1950s and Post Painterly Abstraction in the 1960s Through many deep dives into key artist archives Robbins brings to the page the minds and voices of painters Arshile Gorky Jack Tworkov Helen Frankenthaler Kenneth Noland Sam Gilliam and Agnes Martin along with those of critics such as Harold Rosenberg and Rosalind Krauss While these are all important characters in the polemical histories of American modernism this is the first time they are placed together in a single study and treated with equal measure as peers participating in the shared late modernist moment

Action, Art, History Daniel Alan Herwitz, Michael Kelly, 2007 Arthur C Danto is unique among philosophers for the breadth of his philosophical mind his eloquent writing style and the generous spirit embodied in all his work Any collection of essays on his philosophy has to engage him on all these levels because this is how he has always engaged the world as a philosopher and person In this volume renowned philosophers and art historians revisit Danto's theories of art action and history and the depth of his innovation as a philosopher of culture Essays explore the importance of Danto's philosophy and criticism for the contemporary art world along with his theories of perception action historical knowledge and most importantly for Danto himself the conceptual connections among these topics Danto himself continues the conversation by adding his own commentary to each essay extending the debate with characteristic insight graciousness and wit Contributors include Frank Ankersmit Hans Belting Stanley Cavell Donald Davidson Lydia Goehr Gregg Horowitz Philip Kitcher Daniel Immerwahr Daniel Herwitz and Michael Kelly testifying to the far reaching effects of Danto's thought Danto brought to philosophy the artist's unfettered imagination and his ideas about postmodern culture are virtual road maps of the present art world This volume pays tribute to both Danto's brilliant capacity to move between philosophy and contemporary culture and his pathbreaking achievements in philosophy art history and art criticism

Aesthetic Thinking: Essays on Intention, Painting, Action, and Ideology Fred Orton, 2021-12-13 Fred Orton's teaching and writing has always combined theoretical and formal which is to say structural analysis with historical research and reflection This collection of essays rewritten studies of Paul Cézanne Jasper Johns the American cultural critic Harold Rosenberg and a new essay on Marx and Engels notion of ideology brings together some of his most decisive contributions to thinking about fine art practice and rethinking the theory and methods of the social history of art More than an anthology it offers a vivid demonstration of how theory can work to generate new interpretations and unsettle old ones

Image, Action, and Idea in Contemporary Jewish Art Ben Schachter, 2017-12-15 Contemporary Jewish art is a growing field that includes traditional as well as new creative practices yet criticism of it is almost exclusively reliant on the Second Commandment's prohibition of graven images Arguing that this disregards the corpus of Jewish thought and a century of criticism and interpretation Ben Schachter advocates instead a new approach focused on action and process Departing from the traditional interpretation of the Second Commandment Schachter addresses abstraction conceptual art performance art and other styles that do not rely on imagery for meaning He examines Jewish art through the concept of melachot work like creative activities as defined by the medieval Jewish philosopher Maimonides Showing the similarity between art and melachot in the active processes of contemporary Jewish artists such as Ruth Weisberg Allan Wexler Archie Rand and Nechama Golan he explores the relationship between these artists methods and Judaism s demanding attention to procedure A compellingly written challenge to traditionalism Image Action and Idea in Contemporary Jewish Art makes a well argued case for artistic production interpretation and criticism that revels in the dual foundation of Judaism and art history

Performance Art in China Thomas J. Berghuis,2006 Performance Art in China takes as its subject one of the most dynamic and controversial areas of experimental art practice in China In his comprehensive study Sydney based theorist and art historian Thomas J Berghuis introduces and investigates the idea of the role of the mediated subject of the acting body in art a notion grounded in the realization that the body is always present in art practice as well as its subsequent secondary representations Through a series of in depth case studies Berghuis reveals how during the past 25 years Chinese performance artists have acted out their art often in opposition to the principles governing correct behavior in the public domain In addition to a 25 year chronology of events a systematic index of places names and key terms as well as a bibliography and a glossary in English and Chinese this study also offers the reader numerous previously unpublished photos and documents

Theory of the Image Thomas Nail,2019-05-15 We live in an age of the mobile image The world today is absolutely saturated with images of all kinds circulating around the world at an incredible rate The movement of the image has never been more extraordinary than it is today This recent kinetic revolution of the image has enormous consequences not only for the way we think about contemporary art and aesthetics but also for art history as well Responding to this historical moment Theory of the Image offers a fresh new theory and history of art from the perspective of this epoch defining mobility The image has been understood in many ways but it is rarely understood to be fundamentally in motion The original and materialist approach is what defines Theory of the Image and what allows it to offer the first kinetic history of the Western art tradition In this book Thomas Nail further develops his larger philosophy of movement into a comprehensive kinesthetic of the moving image from prehistory to the present The book concludes with a vivid analysis of the contemporary digital image and its hybridity ultimately outlining new territory for research and exploration across aesthetics art history cultural theory and media studies

Slow Painting Helen Westgeest,2020-10-29 The abundance of images in our everyday lives and the speed at which they are consumed seems to have left us unable to critique them To rectify this situation artists such as Daniel Richter Jaune Quick to See Smith and Artur Zmijewski have demonstrated that painting is brilliantly equipped to produce slow images that enable encourage and reward reflection In this book Helen Westgeest attempts to understand how various forms of slow painting can be used as tools to interrogate the visual mediations we encounter daily Painting was expected to disappear in the digital age but through interactive painting performances and painting like manipulated photographs and videos Westgeest shows how photography video and new media art have themselves developed the visual strategies that painting had already mastered Moreover the fleeting nature of digital mass media appears to have unlocked a desire for more physically stable and enduring pictures like paintings Slow Painting charts how in a world where the constant quest for speed can leave us exhausted the appeal of this slower medium has only grown Histories and Practices of Live Art

Deirdre Heddon, Jennie Klein, 2012-12-07 In this dynamic collection a team of experts map the development of Live Art culturally thematically and historically Supported with examples from around the world the text engages with a number of key practices asking what these practices do and how they can be contextualised and understood Intelligent Action

Timothy Ridlen, 2024-06-14 Through archival research and analysis of artworks by Gyorgy Kepes Allan Kaprow Mel Bochner and Suzanne Lacy among others Intelligent Action examines how these artists brought alternatives to dominant conceptions of research and knowledge production The book is organized around specific institutional formations artistic research centers proposals exhibitions on college campuses and the establishment of new schools or pedagogic programs Formal and social analysis demonstrate how artists responded to ideas of research knowledge production information and pedagogy Works discussed were produced between 1958 and 1975 a moment when boundaries between media were breaking down in response to technological cultural and generational change In the context of academia these artistic practices have taken up the look feel or language of various research and teaching practices In some cases artists bent to the demands of the cold war research university while in others artists developed new modes of practice and pedagogy Reading these works through their institutional histories author Tim Ridlen shows how artistic research practices and artistic subjectivity developed in the long 1960s within and alongside academia transforming the role of artists in the process A History of Contemporary

Chinese Art Yan Zhou, 2020-07-14 Chinese art has experienced its most profound metamorphosis since the early 1950s transforming from humble realism to socialist realism from revolutionary art to critical realism then avant garde movement and globalized Chinese art With a hybrid mix of Chinese philosophy imported but revised Marxist ideology and western humanities Chinese artists have created an alternative approach after a great ideological and aesthetic transition in the 1980s toward its own contemporaneity though interacting and intertwining with the art of rest of the world This book will investigate from the perspective of an activist critic and historian who grew up prior to and participated in the great transition and then researched and taught the subject the evolution of Chinese art in modern and contemporary times The volume will be a comprehensive and insightful history of the one of the most sophisticated and unparalleled artistic and cultural phenomena in the modern world Action Painting Workshop Cindy Wider, Stuart Wider, 2013-07-25 This Action
