The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen NatashaT. Seaman,2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master s simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio s motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen s appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen s largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen s paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio s Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio s paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen s works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist s response to them

Res Francesco Pellizzi,2014-03-10 RES 63 64 includes Source and trace by Christopher S Wood Timelessness fluidity and Apollo s libation by Milette Gaifman A liquid history Blood and animation in late medieval art by Beate Fricke Guercino s wet drawing by Nicola Suthor The readymade metabolized Fluxus in life by David Joselit and other papers      Maximum Embodiment Bert Winther-Tamaki,2012-01-31 Maximum Embodiment presents a compelling thesis articulating the historical character of Yoga literally the Western painting of Japan The term designates what was arguably the most important movement in modern Japanese art from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth centuries Perhaps the most critical marker of Yoga was its association with the medium of oil on canvas which differed greatly from the water based pigments and inks of earlier Japanese painting Yoga encompassed both establishment fine art and avant gardist insurgencies but in both cases as the term suggests it was typically focused on techniques motifs canons or iconographies that were obtained in Europe and deployed by Japanese artists Despite recent advances in Yoga studies important questions remain unanswered What specific visuality did the protagonists of Yoga seek from Europe and contribute to modern Japanese society What qualities of representation were so dearly coveted as to stimulate dedication to the pursuit of Yoga What distinguished Yoga in Japanese visual culture This study answers these questions by defining a paradigm of embodied representation unique to Yoga painting that may be conceptualized in four registers first the distinctive materiality of oil paint pigments on the picture surface second the depiction of palpable human bodies third the identification of the act and product of painting with a somatic expression of the artist s physical being and finally rhetorical metaphors of political and social incorporation The so called Western painters of Japan were driven to strengthen subjectivity by maximizing a Japanese sense of embodiment through the technical aesthetic and political means suggested by these interactive registers of embodiment Balancing critique and sympathy for the twelve Yoga painters who are its principal protagonists Maximum Embodiment investigates the quest for embodiment in some of the most compelling images of modern Japanese art The valiant struggles of artists to garner strongly embodied positions of subjectivity in the 1910s and 1930s gave way to despairing attempts at fathoming and mediating the horrifying experiences of real life during and after the war in the 1940s and 1950s The very properties of Yoga that had been so conducive to expressing forceful embodiment now produced often gruesome imagery of the destruction of bodies Combining acute visual analysis within a convincing conceptual framework this volume provides an original account of how the drive toward maximum embodiment in early twentieth century Yoga was derailed by an impulse toward maximum disembodiment

Enlightened Animals in Eighteenth-Century Art Sarah Cohen, 2021-02-11 How do our senses help us to understand the world? This question, which preoccupied Enlightenment thinkers, also emerged as a key theme in depictions of animals in eighteenth-century art. This book examines the ways in which painters such as Chardin, as well as sculptors, porcelain modelers, and other decorative designers portrayed animals as sensing subjects who physically confirmed the value of material experience. The sensual style known today as the Rococo encouraged the proliferation of animals as exemplars of empirical inquiry, ranging from the popular subject of the monkey artist to the alchemical wonders of the life-sized porcelain animals created for the Saxon court. Examining writings on sensory knowledge by La Mettrie, Condillac, Diderot, and other philosophers side by side with depictions of the animal in art, Cohen argues that artists promoted the animal as a sensory subject while also validating the material basis of their own professional practice.

Things and Thingness in European Literature and Visual Art, 700-1600 Jutta Eming, Kathryn Starkey, 2021-12-06 The eleven chapters in this international volume draw on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to focus our attention on medieval and early modern things, ca. 700-1600. The range of things includes actual objects, the Altenburg Crucifixion, a copy of Hieronymus Brunschwig's Liber de arte distillandi, a pilgrim's letter, imagined objects, a prayed cloak for the Virgin Mary, and narrative objects in texts, the Alliterative Morte Arthure, the Ordene de Chevalerie, Hartmann von Aue's Erec, Heinrich of Neustadt's Apollonius of Tyre, Lucretius's De Rerum Natura, and the vita of Saint Guthlac. Each, in its own way, the papers consider how things do what they do in texts and art, often foregrounding the intersection between the material and the immaterial by exploring such questions as how things act, how they express power, and how texts and images represent them. Medieval and early modern things are repeatedly shown to be more than symbolic or passive; they are agentive and determinative in both their intra- and extradiegetic worlds. The things that are addressed in this volume are varied and are embedded or entangled in different contexts and societies, and yet they share a concerted engagement in human life.
