Independent and in 1913 he emerged as the mastermind behind the Armory Show the first large scale display of European viewing works by Duchamp Matisse Picasso and others Drawing on extensive archival research including previously unavailable letters and diaries this book covers the breadth and depth of the artist's life and career from his boyhood in Utica in the 1860s through his close association with such artists and collectors as Robert Henri John Sloan Alfred Stieglitz Lizzie Zanne Etta Cone and Henri Matisse G. David Thompson and Paul Klee The case studies are linked by a thematic focus on the integral relationship between the collectors acquired knowledge about the work they amassed and their innovative display models This focus brings a new perspective to the history of collecting and interpreting modern art in America for nearly half a century 1915-1960 By examining the books the collectors themselves read and analyzing archival photographs of their displays the author makes a case for the historical significance of how the collectors presented the art they acquired before their collections were institutionalized
