Sickert Wendy Baron, Walter Sickert, 2006-01-01 Walter Richard Sickert 1860-1942 was an artist of prodigious creativity. For sixty years in his roles as painter, teacher and polemicist he was a source of inspiration and influence to successive generations of British painters. With his roots in the Victorian era, Sickert broke all taboos. He was uncompromisingly truthful, revealing beauty in the squalid as in the sublime, in cockney music halls, the crumbling streets of Dieppe, the grand sites of Venice and the low life of Camden Town. Decades before Warhol he exploited the potential of photo-based imagery and of studio production lines to create iconic portraits of the grandees of theatrical, social and political life. This catalogue is divided into two parts: essay chapters describe Sickert's chronology in terms of stylistic and technical development and a fully illustrated catalogue presents more than 2800 drawings and paintings, many of which have never been published before.

British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost, some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de-accessioning, mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting      Locating Renaissance Art Carol M. Richardson, 2007-01-01

Renaissance art history is traditionally identified with Italian centers of production and Florence in particular. Instead, this book explores the dynamic interchange between European artistic centers and artists and the trade in works of art. It also considers the impact of differing locations on art and artists and some of the economic, political, and cultural factors crucial to the emergence of an artistic center. During c. 1420–1520, no city or court could succeed in isolation, and so artists operated within a network of interests and local and international identities. The case studies presented in this book portray the Renaissance as an exciting international phenomenon with cities and courts inextricably bound together in a web of economic and political interests.
