Thomas,2023-11-28 Palaces of Reason traces the fascinating history of three royal residences built outside of Naples in the eighteenth century at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta Commissioned by King Charles of Bourbon and Queen Maria Amalia of Saxony who reigned over the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies these buildings were far more than residences for the monarchs They were designed to help reshape the economic and cultural fortunes of the realm The palaces at Capodimonte Portici and Caserta are among the most complex architectural commissions of the eighteenth century Considering the architecture and decoration of these complexes within their political cultural and economic contexts Robin L Thomas argues that Enlightenment ideas spurred their construction and influenced their decoration These modes of thinking saw the palaces as more than just centers of royal pleasure or muscular assertions of the crown's power Indeed writers and royal ministers viewed them as active agents in improving the cultural political social and economic health of the kingdom By casting the palaces within this narrative Thomas counters the assumption that they were imitations of Versailles and the swan songs of absolutism while expanding our understanding of the eighteenth century European palace more broadly Original and convincing Thomas s book will be of interest to historians of art and architectural history and eighteenth century studies Houses, Villas, and Palaces in the Roman World Alexander G. McKay,1998-05-29 In a fascinating study of ancient Roman architecture classics scholar Alexander McKay examines simple houses mansions estates and palatial buildings interior furnishings and gardens revealing that Roman civilization was astonishingly similar to our own He also discusses the conditions of life in the Roman provinces 153 illustrations Northwest Europe in the Early Middle Ages, c.AD 600-1150 Christopher Loveluck,2013-10-24 Using the most recently discovered archaeological and textual evidence Christopher Loveluck explores the transformation of Northwest Europe from c AD 600 to 1150 The New Palaces of Medieval Venice , Islamesque DIANA.
