Places In Art:

Places as Art Mike Lipske, 1985 Places in Art National Gallery (Great Britain), 1998 Art in Detroit Public Places Dennis Alan Nawrocki, 1999 This is a guidebook to the many major examples of public art in metropolitan Detroit and a proof that the tradition of art in public places is enjoying a renaissance It studies 120 sites organized into five geographical districts Each area includes a map to facilitate a walking or driving tour The text provides a brief discussion of the history of each work the nature of its commission and its relation to its site Art Schools and Place Silvie Jacobi, 2020-06-15 Art education has a definite impact on artists sense of place and their spatial relations Exploring where and why artists choose to locate is the first step in describing an art scene ethnographically This research considers coming to and going through art school as a crucial inter subjective learning environment Artists learn not just to engage with place through spatial and relational practices but gain a sense of mobility and transnational flows in a globalized art world This book is the first time the art school has been studied this way in the nascent field of art geography blending the tool kits of human geography and urban studies This is timely against the backdrop of worldwide university closures of physical space and cost intensive fine art courses as a triumph of managerialism and business case over education This volume helps highlight how investment in this form of education has an important capacity for nurturing art scenes and feeding into the community at large Places as Art Mike Lipske, 1985 Going Public Jeffrey L. Cruikshank, Pam Korza, 1988 1 copy located in Circulation Poems of Places: America Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1881 The Origin and History of Irish Names of Places P.W.. Joyce, 1883 Museums in Motion Juilee Decker, 2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance resiliency and future proofing Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums natural history and anthropological museums science museums museums focused history and the past and gardens zoos and children s museums Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U S Section II explores the primary functions of museums including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible Placemaking and the Arts
