Pale As Real Ladies:

Pale as Real Ladies Joan Crate, 1989 In powerful language that reflects the conflicts between the primitive and the sophisticated Joan Crate redreams the passions which animated and tormented her famous predecessor Part white part Mohawk princess Pauline Johnson Tekahionwake would perform her poems first in buckskin then after the intermission in silk Economies of Representation, 1790?2000 Leigh Dale, 2017-11-30 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power Native Writers and Canadian Writing William Herbert New, William H. New, 1990 Focuses on literature by and about Canada's native peoples and contains original articles and poems by both native and non native writers Directs the reader to the underlying traditions largely misunderstood by the non native community of myths rituals and songs Victorian Traffic Sue Thomas, 2009-05-05 Organised around the themes Home and Abroad Performative Traffic and Image Circulation Mobility Victorian Traffic Identity Performance Exchange variously addresses the cultural dimensions of traffic in the long Victorian period cross cultural experience colonial and racial imaginaries everyday literary autobiographical and professional stagings of identity and trade in metaphors communications texts images celebrity character types and quilts The concept of traffic underpins historical interpretation and theoretical formulations and the rhetorics of trade in Victorian usage are contextualised Understandings of identity emphasise the performative and the negotiation of agency in relation to social and cultural scriptings of gender class ethnicity and community The essays have a wide global range and reach This collection of essays takes as its theme an enormously important concept for the nineteenth century traffic a term that in a time of unprecedented commercial and imperial expansion technological developments population growth and urbanization acquired new resonance and came to signify the intensely transactional nature of modernity One of Ruskin's most searing critiques of the spiritual condition of England an invited lecture he delivered in 1864 on the topic of the Bradford Exchange is entitled Traffic and the word clearly signifies for him all that is wrong with post industrial capitalism But this stimulating volume encompasses a range of other significations that have additionally come to accrue around the term relating for example to inter cultural exchange to the circulation of ideas and images to the commodification of identity and to literature art and performance in the market place The scope of the collection is appropriately global including essays on England's relations of exchange with Australia New Zealand North America the Far East and the Caribbean What we are shown ineluctably is that the traffic between Victorian Britain and the reaches of empire between Home and Abroad was two way a vehicle for cross cultural encounter mediation and trade and that cultural identity is relational circulatory and always in motion Hilary Fraser Birkbeck University of London Economies of Representation, 1790-2000 Leigh Dale, 2017-11-30 Although postcolonialism has emerged as one of the most significant theoretical movements in literary and cultural studies it has paid scant attention to the importance of trade and trade relations to debates about culture Focusing on the past two centuries this volume investigates the links among trade colonialism and forms of representation posing the question What is the historical or modern relationship between economic inequality and imperial patterns of representation and reading Rather than dealing exclusively with a particular industry or type of industry the contributors take up the issue of how various economies have been represented in Aboriginal art in literature by North American Caribbean Portuguese South African First Nations Australian British and Aboriginal authors and in a diverse range of writings that includes travel diaries missionary texts the findings of the Leprosy Investigation Commission early medical accounts and media representations of HIV AIDS Examining trade in commodities as various as illicit drugs liquor bananas tourism adventure fiction and modern Aboriginal art as well as cultural exchanges in politics medicine and literature the essays reflect the widespread origins of the contributors themselves who are based throughout the English speaking world Taken as a whole this book contests the commonplace view promoted by some modern economists that trade in and of itself has a leveling effect equalising cultures places and peoples demonstrating instead the ways in which commerce has created and exacerbated differences in power Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-07-15 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy's continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past Inscribing Difference and Resistance Martina Horáková, 2017-01-01 Kniha Inscribing Difference and of Classic Stories) Mitzi Szereto, 2019-01-27 Classic gothic horror stories from the literary mistresses of the past Many of gothic horror s spookiest tales have come from the pens of women Yet a substantial number of these women were overshadowed by their male contemporaries especially with regard to the classics Ladies of Gothic Horror A Collection of Classic Stories redresses this imbalance by bringing together a selection of gothic stories from the past written exclusively by women Carefully edited and compiled by author and anthologist Mitzi Szereto Ladies of Gothic Horror offers readers plenty of good old fashioned chills and thrills Whether you re a devotee of the genre a literature lover an academic or a student this volume of short fiction is sure to please The biographies accompanying each story will show that these women were anything but typical for their time Includes stories from Mary Shelley Elizabeth Gaskell Edith Wharton Marjorie Bowen Gertrude Atherton Virginia Woolf Charlotte Perkins Gilman Elia W Peattie and many more Ladies of Gothic Horror A Collection of Classic Stories is a must read for anyone who loves the horror mystery science fiction or paranormal genres Long and Short Reviews An inspiring collection to be enjoyed in its own right preferably by candlelight while sat in your favourite chair ScreamFix You ll find some damn fine fiction in this collection and some equally impressive true stories Get On My Damn Level book reviews We have stories with ghosts some malevolent some seeking vengeance and some simply waiting for a wrong to be corrected Including a thoughtful look into the time period and the challenges that these women had faced in getting published let alone in living their everyday lives Girl Who Reads The Ladies' Repository ,1846
