figure from this period is the poet and critic Johan Ludvig Heiberg who attended Hegel's lectures in Berlin in 1824 and then launched a campaign to popularize Hegel's philosophy among his fellow countrymen Using his journal Kjøbenhavn's flyvende Post as a platform Heiberg published numerous articles containing ideas that he had borrowed from Hegel Several readers felt provoked by Heiberg's Hegelianism and wrote critical responses to him many of which appeared in Kjøbenhavnsposten the rival of Heiberg's journal Through these debates Hegel's philosophy became an important part of Danish cultural life

America's Great Age of Rhetoric, 1770-1860 Merrill D. Whitburn, 2024-05-13 This book analyzes the advocacy conceptualization and institutionalization of rhetoric from 1770 to 1860 Among the forces promoting advocacy was the need for oratory calling for independence the belief that using rhetoric was the way to succeed in biblical interpretation and preaching and the desire for rhetoric as entertainment Conceptually leaders followed classical and German rhetoricians in viewing rhetoric as an art of ethical choice Institutionally a rhetorician such as Ebenezer Porter called for the development of organizations at all levels a sociology of rhetoric Orville Dewey highlighted the passion for rhetoric calling his times the age of eloquence      The Universe as Communion Alexei Nesteruk, 2011-11-03 In this book a new and distinctive approach to the science religion debate emerges from a synthesis of the Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition with phenomenological thought Developing ideas of Greek Patristics the author treats faith with its sense of the Divine presence and knowledge of the universe as two modes of communion which constitute the human condition The modern opposition between science and theology which is historically paralleled with the Church's split between East and West and monasticism and Christianity in the world is treated as the split between two intentionalities of the overall human subjectivity The human person as a centre of their reconciliation becomes the major theme of the dialogue between science and theology It is argued that the reconciliation of science and theology is not simply an academic exercise it requires an existential change a change of mind metanoia which cannot be effected without ecclesial involvement Then the person who effectuates the mediation between science and theology is raised to the level of cosmic priesthood while the mediation acquires the features of a cosmic Eucharist in which all divisions and tensions in creation and humanity are removed It is through this existential change accompanied by phenomenological analysis that scientific theories can be subjected to a certain vision through which the hidden ultimate goal telos of scientific research as the explication of the human condition shows its kinship to the saving telos advocated by Christian faith The opposition between theology and science is thus being para eucharistically overcome

A Deeper Vision Robert Royal, 2015-12-15 In this wide ranging and ambitious volume Robert Royal a prominent participant for many years in debates about religion and contemporary life offers a comprehensive and balanced appraisal of the Catholic intellectual tradition in the twentieth century The Catholic Church values both Faith and Reason and Catholicism has given rise to extraordinary ideas and whole schools of remarkable thought not just in the distant past but throughout the troubled decades of the twentieth century Royal presents in a single volume a sweeping but readable account of how Catholic thinking developed in philosophy theology Scripture studies culture literature and much more in the twentieth century This involves great figures recognized as such both inside and outside the Church such as Jacques Maritain Bernard Lonergan Joseph Pieper Edith Stein Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Romano Guardini Karl Rahner Henri du Lubac Karol Wojtyla Joseph Ratzinger Hans Urs von Balthasar Charles Peguy Paul Claudel George Bernanos Francois

Mauriac G K Chesterton Gerard Manley Hopkins Christopher Dawson Graham Greene Sigrid Undset J R R Tolkien Czeslaw Milosz and many more Royal argues that without rigorous thought Catholicism however welcoming and nourishing it might be would become something like a doctor with a good bedside manner but who knows little medicine It has always been the aspiration of the Catholic tradition to unite emotion and intellect action and contemplation But unless we know what the tradition has already produced especially in the work of the great figures of the recent past we will not be able to answer the challenges that the modern world poses or even properly recognize the true questions we face This is a reflective non polemical work that brings together various strands of Catholic thought in the twentieth century A comprehensive guide to the recent past and the future

Marxism, Socialism & Communism Andreas Sofroniou,2012-04-26 The three terms Marxism Socialism and Communism have different meanings and are often confused While Marxism is a philosophical and scientific theory about the nature of social evolution Communism and Socialism are words which are usually employed to designate certain political policies The relationship between these policies and Marxism is that they aim in varying degrees at achieving the ends which Marxism is believed to justify The difference between Communists and Socialists is that Socialists accept the principle of achieving their ends through the machinery of a free democracy while Communists accept this only in so far as it is inevitable and are ready to resort to unconstitutional means to attain their ends when such methods appear likely to be more successful Although these seem to be the ends of both Socialism and Communism there is no ground for the belief that Marxism justifies these ends in a moral sense i e shows that they ought to be pursued

A Philosophical Critique of Thought Zhengyu Sun,2020-11-02 This book is mainly concerned with elaborating an account of the unique theoretical essence and activities of philosophy What manner of civilization should modern humans forge On what developmental path should a nation embark What lifestyle should each individual choose These are the most fundamental issues of our time Profoundly implicit in the choices outlined above is a deeper question What are the criteria of choice An examination of these criteria is a reflection on the premises constituting thought or a critique of the premises underlying thought Using a critique of the premises underlying thought as the basic idea and hermeneutic principle in philosophy will open a wider theoretical space for contemporary philosophy so as to avoid the predicament of being pseudo scientific or pseudo artistic It will also present contemporary philosophy with a realistic path of development for the task of reflecting on the criteria of choice This book seeks to formulate concrete philosophical arguments for a critique of the basic beliefs logic modes concepts and philosophical ideas which constitute thought with the aim of demonstrating the vigorous self critique and inexhaustible theoretical space found in philosophical development This book provides a new principle of interpretation for understanding philosophy and in turn uses this principle to develop a critique of the premises underlying thought thereby furthering the contemporary development of philosophy This book encompasses a critique of the premises underlying thought which mainly includes the basic beliefs logic modes concepts and philosophical ideas constituting thought Such a critique should comprise five aspects First the basic beliefs constituting thought propose a critique of the identity of thought and being second the basic logic constituting thought refers to a critique of the formal intensional and practical logic of thought third the basic modes constituting thought denote a critique of the basic modes by which humans comprehend the world including commonsense religion art and science fourth the basic concepts constituting thought entail a critique centering on being the world history truth value and other basic concepts and finally the philosophical ideas constituting thought indicate a critique of philosophy itself A critique aligned on these five aspects will provide a general philosophical overview of the premise critique of thought      The Catholic Encyclopedia: Philip-Revaluation ,1911
