Philosophy A Text With Readings 7th:

Children's and YA Books in the College Classroom Emily Dial-Driver, Jim Ford, Sara N. Beam, 2015-03-23 Using children's and young adult literature is a great way to enhance a variety of college classes in fields as varied as biology, computer game development, political science, and history. This collection of new essays by educators from a number of disciplines describes how to use such works as Where the Wild Things Are, The Tale of Peter Rabbit, Swamp Thing, Percy Jackson, and Harry Potter to introduce complex concepts and spark interest in difficult subjects. The contributors describe innovative teaching strategies using dystopian fiction, graphic narratives, fairy tales, and mythology. Often overlooked or dismissed by teachers, children's literature can support student learning by raising levels of academic rigor, creativity, and critical thinking.

Discourse, Power, and Resistance Down Under Mark Vicars, Tarquam McKenna, Julie White, 2012-10-26 This edited collection is an eclectic and provocative volume taken from presentations that reflect the scholarship of the inaugural AQR DPR Down Under conference that was held in Cairns in 2011 in Australia. This was a groundbreaking conference that brought together scholars, researchers, and practitioners from across Australia, UK, Japan, Italy, Finland, New Zealand, Luxembourg, South Africa, Vietnam, Malaysia, Tanzania, and Mexico. The theme of the conference represented at the conference and in this volume was that of Politicizing Qualitative Research. Delegates presented papers that sought to challenge research practices that too often can delegitimize. Other ways of knowing, confronting, disrupting, and resisting the epistemological common sense way of doing research within the academy can be a risky business and is often a fraught and contested endeavor. However, as the papers in this volume illustrate, contestation promises opportunities for re-perceiving, re-interpreting, and productively disrupting the orthodoxies of disciplinarity. Many thanks to Ignacio Rojas whose patient assistance and expertise as an artist in designing the cover proved invaluable in bringing this book to print.

God's Amazing Grace, Loving Mercy & Abiding Peace Mark E. Oh, 2012 The purpose of my autobiography is to give my heart-felt thanks to the Lord for what He has done for me for the past 60 years beginning from 1950 when I became a Christian during the war of Pohang in the boundary of life and death to 2010 when I officially closed the Lord's ministry as pastor of International Bible Church in Los Angeles. The desire of writing this book is totally on my own for neither did the Lord ever ask me to write this book nor did He ever need this book to be written. When a person receives God's amazing grace, loving mercy, and abiding peace in him, is welling up a spring of water of thanksgiving from his inner heart without ceasing until he shares its amazing grace and loving mercy and abiding peace with others. This is just what I have done in this book. I am giving the Lord my heart-felt thanksgiving for the 20 miracles that have happened to me for the past 60 years without which I wouldn't be here today. To God be the glory and honor forever. Amen. Mark E. Oh, PhD, DMin is a graduate of Keimyung University, Korea; San Francisco Theological Seminary; New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary; Western Seminary, California; Graduate School of Theology and Fuller Theological Seminary. Married to the former Rosemary McGuire.

Stamos, 2015-11-17 In this groundbreaking and provocative new book philosopher of science David N Stamos challenges the current conceptions of human rights and argues that the existence of universal human rights is a modern myth Using an evolutionary analysis to support his claims Stamos traces the origin of the myth from the English Levellers of 1640s London to our modern day Theoretical defenses of the belief in human rights are critically examined including defenses of nonconsensus concepts In the final chapter Stamos develops a method of naturalized normative ethics which he then applies to topics routinely dealt with in terms of human rights In all of this Stamos hopes to show that there is a better way of dealing with matters of ethics and justice a way that involves applying the whole of our evolved moral being rather than only parts of it and that is fiction free      The Study of Philosophy Andrew Pessin,S.
