Wilhelm Dilthey: Selected Works, Volume III Wilhelm Dilthey, 2010-10-10 This volume provides Dilthey s most mature and best formulation of his Critique of Historical Reason It begins with three Studies Toward the Foundation of the Human Sciences in which Dilthey refashions Husserlian concepts to describe the basic structures of consciousness relevant to historical understanding The volume next presents the major 1910 work The Formation of the Historical World in the Human Sciences Here Dilthey considers the degree to which carriers of history individuals cultures institutions and communities can be articulated as productive systems capable of generating value and meaning and of realizing purposes Hegel s idea of objective spirit is reconceived in a more empirical form to designate the medium of commonality in which historical beings are immersed Any universal claims about history need to be framed within the specific productive systems analyzed by the various human sciences Dilthey's drafts for the Continuation of the Formation contain extensive discussions of the categories most important for our knowledge of historical life meaning value purpose time and development He also examines the contributions of autobiography to historical understanding and of biography to scientific history The finest summary of Dilthey's views on hermeneutics can be found in The Understanding of Other Persons and Their Manifestations of Life Here Dilthey differentiates understanding relative to three kinds of manifestations of life After giving his analysis of elementary understanding he examines the role of induction in higher understanding and interpretation and the relevance of transposition and re-experiencing for grasping individuality Wilhelm Dilthey:

Wilhelm Dilthey I.N. Bulhof, 2012-12-06 Philosophy originates in man's amazement over the richness and complexity of reality It attempts to articulate in words and concepts what reality is Starting from the recognition that this reality is experienced by all humans but experienced in many different ways the philosopher tries to find reality's heart its center its hidden treasure the tree in the middle connecting heaven and earth the central point from which the stupendous intricacy of experience begins to make sense and from which order can become visible To ask what is reality is indeed to recognize that we have entered a maze The hermeneutic philosophy of Wilhelm Dilthey 1833-1911 is the fruit of his own wanderings in this maze Like many intellectuals of his age he had lost faith in the Christian religion in which he was raised In his college years he turned from theology to philosophy in particular the history of philosophy and of human thought in general wondering about the origin and value of the astounding variety of past belief systems At the center of reality's maze he found the insight that reality as faced by man is comparable to a literary text it means something to us Reality is not a mute object but an autonomous source of meaning an act of self-disclosure knowledge of reality is therefore not the product of actions performed by an active subject upon a passive object but a communicative interaction between two Subjects Historical Understanding in the Thought of Wilhelm Dilthey Theodore Plantinga, 1980 Wilhelm Dilthey: Selected Works, Volume VI Wilhelm Dilthey, 2019-11-12 This book completes a landmark six-volume translation of the major writings of Wilhelm Dilthey 1833-1911 a philosopher and historian of culture who continues to have a significant influence on philosophy hermeneutics and the theory of the human sciences These volumes make available to English readers texts that represent the full range of Dilthey's work The works in this volume present Dilthey's most deeply held views about philosophy and how it can guide human practices System of Ethics 1890 argues that Humean sympathy motivates us only externally and must be replaced with the internally motivated fellow feeling of solidarity that respects others as ends in themselves The Essence of Philosophy 1907 demonstrates how philosophy has developed from its traditional metaphysical role to the epistemological and encyclopedic functions that ground and order the natural and human sciences The work also discloses an orientational function of philosophy that is explored further in The Types of World View and Their Development 1911 Philosophical world views are important in that they address the existential needs and riddles that grow out of life experience and are not solved by any of the sciences In addition the book features three other significant essays Present Day Culture and Philosophy 1898 concerns the challenges to philosophy posed by contemporary culture Dream 1903 is about the thinkers portrayed in Raphael s School of Athens and Dilthey s worries about them breaking up into three divergent groups Finally The Problem of Religion 1911 considers how religiosity can still inform lived experience in secular times Interpreting Dilthey Eric S.
