The Phonology of Norwegian Gjert Kristoffersen, 2000 At the end of the fourteenth century Norway having previously been an independent kingdom became by conquest a province of Denmark and remained so for three centuries In 1814 as part of the fall out from the Napoleonic wars the country became a largely independent nation within the monarchy of Sweden By this time however Danish had become the language of government commerce and education as well as of the middle and upper classes Nationalistic Norwegians sought to reestablish native identity by creating and promulgating a new language based partly on rural dialects and partly on Old Norse The upper and middle classes sought to retain a form of Norwegian close to Danish that would be intelligible to themselves and to their neighbours in Sweden and Denmark The controversy has gone on ever since One result is that the standard dictionaries of Norwegian ignore pronunciation for no version can be counted as received Another is that there has been considerable variety and change in Norwe The
