photobook is available again with new high quality image scans and supplementary research Robert Capa's Death in the Making was published in 1938 as a poignant tribute to the men and women civilians and soldiers alike fighting in Spain against Franco's fascist insurrection The book included only one year of images from the Republican position but covered the spectrum of emotions of a civil war from the initial excitement to the more harrowing realities of modern warfare But over time after World War II and rising anti communist paranoia in the United States association with the Spanish Civil War was a liability and the book became obscured Today however Death in the Making has reached cult status not least because copies are hard to find particularly ones with Capa's famous Falling Soldier image on the dust jacket With new scans of all the images this facsimile of the original edition reproduces the original layout by photographer Andr  Kertesz the original caption text by Capa and preface by writer Jay Allen The muddy 1938 publication is entirely transformed by high quality printing to reflect the beauty and pathos of the original intention This edition also includes a new essay with new research on the making and the reception of the original book and a complete checklist identifying the author location and date of each image The most important new information is that Robert Capa and Gerda Taro are not the only photographers in the book but also included was work by their good friend and colleague Chim later known as David Seymour Born Endre Erno Friedmann in Budapest Robert Capa 1913-54 spent his early years moving from Hungary to Germany to France and Spain first to dodge political strife and then to actively follow and document it From 1936 to 1945 Capa photographed the Spanish Civil War the Second Sino Japanese War and World War II In 1947 he founded the Magnum Photos agency with fellow photographers Henri Cartier Bresson and David Chim Seymour among others Several years later while documenting the First Indochina War Capa died when he stepped on a landmine

Photographer and war reporter Robert Capa 1913-54 is a legend of photojournalism and his work widely recognized and sometimes controversial shaped the history of the medium Born Endre Friedmann to Jewish parents in Budapest he left Hungary in the early 1930s and took the pseudonym Robert Capa believing that it was easier to sell his work with an American sounding name He went on to cover the major events of the mid 20th century from the rise of Front Populaire in France to the Spanish Civil War the Second World War and Indochina where he was killed by a landmine This retrospective uses both iconic and rarely seen images to retrace the story of Capa's life delving into archives and presenting not only the original photographs but also the magazine features in which they first appeared to offer valuable context and connection Charismatic and committed Capa redefined what it was to be a photojournalist and his unforgettable images have lost none of their power to fascinate
