Experimental Arts in Postwar Japan Miryam Sas, 2020-03-17 In the years of rapid economic growth following the protest movements of the 1960s artists and intellectuals in Japan searched for a means of direct impact on the whirlwind of historical and cultural transformations of their time Yet while the artists often called for such direct encounter their works complicate this ideal with practices of interruption self reflexive mimesis and temporal discontinuity In an era

known for idealism and activism some of the most cherished ideals intimacy between subjects authenticity a sense of home are limitlessly desired yet always just out of reach In this book Miryam Sas explores the theoretical and cultural implications of experimental arts in a range of media Casting light on important moments in the arts from the 1960s to the early 1980s this study focuses first on underground post shingeki theater and then on related works of experimental film and video buto dance and photography Emphasizing the complex and sophisticated theoretical grounding of these artists through their works practices and writings this book also locates Japanese experimental arts in an extensive sustained dialogue with key issues of contemporary critical theory Collaborative Praxis and Contemporary Art Experiments in the MENASA Region

Atteqa Ali,2020-10-30 This book examines the ways in which artists and arts organizations today forge collaborative socially engaged situations that involve non professionals in the process of making art often over a period of time through creating opportunities to examine collective concerns and needs Collaborative art praxis is gaining prominence in the Middle East North Africa and South Asia MENASA region This is a discursive method that is experimental with results that often expand the notions of what art is and how it can be produced After an introduction to global approaches to such a practice Ali examines the foundation of contemporary art in the MENASA that is linked to a longer history of colonialism The book analyzes artist led initiatives and community based organizations through themes including relational aesthetics war and violence blight in marginalized places around the world in addition to questions associated with art and its value in the fields of global contemporary art and society The Cobra Movement in Postwar Europe Karen Kurczynski,2020-07-12 This book examines the art of Cobra a network of poets and artists from Copenhagen Brussels and Amsterdam 1948 1951

Although the name stood for the organizers home cities the Cobra artists hailed from countries in Europe Africa and the United States This book investigates how a group of struggling young artists attempted to reinvent the international avant garde after the devastation of the Second World War to create artistic experiments capable of facing the challenges of postwar society It explores how Cobra s experimental often collective art works and publications relate to broader debates in Europe about the use of images to commemorate violent events the possibility of free expression in an art world constrained by Cold War politics the breakdown of primitivism in an era of colonial independence movements and the importance of spontaneity in a society increasingly dominated by the mass media This book will be of interest to scholars in art history 20th century modern art avant garde arts and European history The Systematic Experiment J. C. Gibbings,A. G.

Baker,1986-09-18 This book explains how to plan execute analyse and write up an experiment Experimentation is an essential part of science and engineering being both the basis of discovery in science and an integral part of engineering development The authors aim is to provide instruction in how to perform a systematic experiment from its conception and design through to the communication of results The text opens by laying the ground rules for the planning of an experiment moving on to a description of measurement techniques and statistical analysis of results An important feature of the book is the inclusion of a chapter on the interfacing of experimental equipment to microcomputers Experimental Self-Portraits in Early French Photography Jillian Lerner, 2020-11-16 This book explores a range of experimental self portraits made in France between 1840 and 1870 including remarkable images by Hippolyte Bayard Nadar Duchenne de Boulogne and Countess de Castiglione Adapting photography for different social purposes each of these pioneers showcased their own body as a living artifact and iconic attraction Jillian Lerner considers performative portraits that exhibit uncanny transformations of identity and embodiment She highlights the tactical importance of photographic demonstrations promotions conversations and the mongrel forms of montage painted photographs and captioned specimens The author shows how photographic practices are mobilized in diverse cultural contexts and enmeshed with the histories of art science publicity urban spectacle and private life in nineteenth century France Tracing calculated and creative approaches to a new medium this research also contributes to an archaeology of the present It furnishes a prehistory of the selfie and offers historical perspectives on the forces that reshape human perception and social experience This interdisciplinary study will appeal to readers interested in the history of photography art visual culture and media studies The Visual Storytelling Arun K A, 2025-05-24 A
