Photography On The Internet:

The Internet for Orthopaedists Don Johnson, Myles Clough, 2006-05-11 This text focuses on the Internet needs of orthopaedic surgeons. It educates them on how to use the web in their day to day practice. Topics covered in depth include quick access to the Internet, the history of the Internet, terminology, hardware and software, search engines, e mail, CME, browsers, mailing lists, medical informatics and creating web pages. An extensive list of annotated orthopaedic specific Internet sites are also included. This unique compilation of orthopaedic specific information forms an invaluable resource for every orthopaedic surgeon wishing to make effective and efficient use of the Internet in his/her practice. Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16 In the first book of its kind, art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats: print sources, CD ROMs, documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results. The book is divided into three sections: Basic Information, Formats, Types of Websites and How to Find Them, and How to Use Web Information. Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites, scholarly and basic information resources are noted, and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included. Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art, historical styles, artists working in various media, individual works of art, and non-Western cultures, as well as art education, writing about art, problems of copyright, and issues concerning the buying and selling of art. This title will be periodically updated. Photography for the Web Paul Duncanson, 2010 A hands-on guide to digital photography with a practical focus on the people who use their cameras specifically for the Internet.
