Photojournalism The Womans Perspective:

Women and Photography in Apartheid South Africa Marie Meyerding, 2025-04-29 Tracing the lives and works of five women in four case studies author Marie Meyerding examines the representation of women in the field of photography in South Africa in the second half of the twentieth century All of them are critically understudied with no existing scholarship dedicated exclusively to their photographic contributions Focusing on the representation of women on two different levels as agents behind the camera and as subjects in photographs it showcases women photographers portraying their female contemporaries and analyses to what extent they adhered to or subverted common forms of gender representation In recuperating their forgotten archives the book argues that none of these women are marginal figures but rather that each of them played a leading role in the field of photography in their own time The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history history of photography gender studies intersectionality and African studies The Multimedia Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, Jane E. Sloan, 2013-01-09 This e only volume expands and updates the original 4 volume Encyclopedia of Women in Today's World 2011 offering a wide range of new entries and new multimedia content The entries reflect such developments as the Arab Spring that brought women's issues in the Islamic world into sharp relief the domination of female athletes among medal winners at the London 2012 Olympics nine more women joining the ranks of democratically elected heads of state and much more The 475 articles in this e only update accompanied by photos and video clips supplement the themes established in the original edition providing a vibrant collection of entries dealing with contemporary women's issues around the world Editing and Design: Pictures on a page; photo-journalism, graphics and picture editing Harold Evans, 1978 Women Made Visible Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda, 2019-04-01 2020 Canadian Association for Latin American and Caribbean Studies CALACS Book Prize In post 1968 Mexico a group of artists and feminist activists began to question how feminine bodies were visually constructed and politicized across media Participation of women was increasing in the public sphere and the exclusive emphasis on written culture was giving way to audio visual communications Motivated by a desire for self representation both visually and in politics female artists and activists transformed existing regimes of media and visibility Women Made Visible by Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda uses a transnational and interdisciplinary lens to analyze the fundamental and overlooked role played by artists and feminist activists in changing the ways female bodies were viewed and appropriated Through their concern for self representation both visually and in formal politics these women played a crucial role in transforming existing regimes of media and visibility increasingly important intellectual spheres of action Foregrounding the work of female artists and their performative and visual rather than written interventions in urban space in Mexico City Aceves Sepúlveda demonstrates that these women feminized Mexico's mediascapes and shaped the debates over the female body gender difference and sexual violence during the last decades of the twentieth century Weaving together the practices of activists filmmakers visual artists videographers and photographers Women Made Visible questions the disciplinary boundaries that have historically undermined the practices of female artists and activists and locates the development of Mexican second wave feminism as a meaningful actor in the contested political spaces of the era both in Mexico City and internationally Critical
