Phyllis The Cautious 33:

A Cautious Silence Geoffrey G. Gray, 2007 This is the first exploration of modern Australian social anthropology which examines the forces that helped shaped its formation In his new work Geoffrey Gray reveals the struggle to establish and consolidate anthropology in Australia as an academic discipline He argues that to do so anthropologists had to demonstrate that their discipline was the predominant interpreter of Indigenous life Thus they were able and called on to assist government in the control development and advancement of Indigenous peoples Gray aims to help us understand the present organisational structures and assist in the formulation of anthropology s future role in Australia to provide a wider political and social context for Australian social anthropology and to consider the importance of anthropology as a past definer of Indigenous people Gray s work complements and adds to earlier publications Wolfe s Settler Colonialism and the Transformation of Anthropology McGregor s Imagined Destinies and Anderson s Cultivating Whiteness Lloyd's Register of Yachts 1977 Lloyd's Register Foundation, 1977-01-01 The Lloyd s Register of Yachts was first issued in 1878 and was issued annually until 1980 except during the years 1916 18 and 1940 46 Two supplements containing additions and corrections were also issued annually The Register contains the names details and characters of Yachts classed by the Society together with the particulars of other Yachts which are considered to be of interest illustrates plates of the Flags of Yacht and Sailing Clubs together with a List of Club Officers an illustrated List of the Distinguishing Flags of Yachtsmen a List of the Names and Addresses of Yacht Owners and much other information For more information on the Lloyd s Register of Yachts please click here <https://hec.lrfoundation.org.uk/archive/library/lloyds-register-of-yachts-online> Book Review Digest, 1905 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher Good Death Through Time Caitlin Mahar, 2023-02-07 I have quite a bit of understanding of white man s ways but it is difficult for me to understand this one A Senate committee investigation of Australia s Northern Territory Rights of the Terminally Ill Act 1995 the first legislation in the world which allowed doctors to actively assist patients to die found that for the vast majority of Indigenous Territorians the idea that a physician or anyone else should help end a dying suffering person s life was so foreign that in some instances it proved almost impossible to translate This book explores how such a death became a thinkable even desirable way to die for so many others in Western cultures Though euthanasia meaning good death derives from ancient Greece for the Greeks this was a matter of Fate or a gift the gods bestowed on the virtuous or simply lucky Caring for the dying was not part of the doctor s remit For the

Victorians a good death meant one blessed by God and widespread belief in a divine design and the value of suffering created resistance to new forms of pain relief And today while most in the Western world cleave to the modern medical view that pain is an aberration to be where possible eliminated complex cultural ethical and practical questions regarding what makes for a good death remain As Caitlin Mahar memorably shows in The Good Death Through Time understanding the radical historical shift in Western attitudes to managing dying and suffering helps us better grasp the stakes in today's contestations over what it means to die well
