Revolutionary Mothers:

Revolutionary Mothers Carol Berkin, 2006-02-14 A groundbreaking history of the American Revolution that vividly recounts Colonial women's struggles for independence for their nation and sometimes for themselves Her lively book reclaims a vital part of our political legacy Los Angeles Times Book Review The American Revolution was a home front war that brought scarcity bloodshed and danger into the life of every American In this book Carol Berkin shows us how women played a vital role throughout the conflict The women of the Revolution were most active at home organizing boycotts of British goods raising funds for the fledgling nation and managing the family business while struggling to maintain a modicum of normalcy as husbands brothers and fathers died Yet Berkin also reveals that it was not just the men who fought on the front lines as in the story of Margaret Corbin who was crippled for life when she took her husband's place beside a cannon at Fort Monmouth This incisive and comprehensive history illuminates a fascinating and unknown side of the struggle for American independence

Women's Roles in Eighteenth-Century America Merrill D. Smith, 2010-02-26 This book offers a look at how the lives of women changed in the era when the United States emerged Spanning the broad spectrum of Colonial era life Women's Roles in Eighteenth Century America is a revealing exploration of how 18 century American women of various races classes and religions were affected by conditions of the times war slavery religious awakenings political change perceptions about gender as well as how they influenced the world around them Women's Roles in Eighteenth Century America covers the area of North America that became the United States and follows the transformation of the British colonies into a new nation The book is organized thematically to examine marriage and the family the law work travel war religion and education and the arts Each chapter combines current research and primary sources to offer authoritative portraits of real lives of the everyday women during this pivotal early era in our history

Women of the Revolution Robert Dunkerly, 2007-11-24 A fascinating account of the women who contributed to the Revolutionary War both patriots and loyalists at specific battles in the Carolinas Each of the Southern Revolutionary battlefields holds the history of soldiers and legends of women From the wooded slopes of Kings Mountain to the fields of Cowpens to the lesser known sites like Fishing Creek and Hanging Rock author Robert M Dunkerly uncovers the stories and legends surrounding the women who were caught up in the struggle This book serves not only as a study of the battles but also as a chronicle of the experiences of women in the eighteenth century Some were camp followers attached to the armies while others were civilians caught in the line of fire Women were present on nearly every battlefield and their stories are told here for the first time Includes photos

Year Book of the Societies Composed of Descendants of the Men of the Revolution, 1890 Henry Hall, 1891

The Cambridge History of the Age of Atlantic Revolutions: Volume 1, The Enlightenment and the British Colonies Wim Klooster, 2023-11-09 Volume I offers an introduction to the Enlightenment which served as the shared background for virtually all revolutionary turmoil and the American Revolution which inaugurated the Age of Revolutions

Beginning with a thorough introduction the volume covers international rivalry the importance of slavery and the reformist mind set that prevailed on the eve of the revolutionary era It addresses the traditional argument on whether the Enlightenment truly caused revolutions concluding that the reverse is more apt revolutions helped create the Enlightenment as a body of thought The volume continues with a regional and thematic assessment of the American Revolution revealing how numerous groups in British America including Black and indigenous people pursued their own agendas and faced interests at odds with the principles of the revolution

Woman to Woman Mary Waldron,2010 The collection is in honor of Mary Waldron a founder member of the Women s Studies Group whose distinguished scholarship is exemplified in the first chapter and whose generous encouragement of other specialists in feminist studies in the long eighteenth century

Revolutionizing Motherhood Marguerite Guzman Bouvard,2002-01-01 Revolutionizing Motherhood examines one of the most astonishing human rights movements of recent years During the Argentine junta s Dirty War against subversives as tens of thousands were abducted tortured and disappeared a group of women forged the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo and changed Argentine politics forever The Mothers began in the 1970s as an informal group of working class housewives making the rounds of prisons and military barracks in search of their disappeared children As they realized that both state and church officials were conspiring to withhold information they started to protest claiming the administrative center of Argentina the Plaza de Mayo for their center stage In this volume Marguerite G Bouvard traces the history of the Mothers and examines how they have transformed maternity from a passive domestic role to one of public strength Bouvard also gives a detailed history of contemporary Argentina including the military s debacle in the Falklands the fall of the junta and the efforts of subsequent governments to reach an accord with the Mothers Finally she examines their current agenda and their continuing struggle to bring the murderers of their children to justice

A People's Guide to Abolition and Disability

Justice Katie Tastrom,2024-05-28 Disability justice and prison abolition are two increasingly popular theories that overlap but whose intersection has rarely been explored in depth A People s Guide to Abolition and Disability Justice explains the history and theories behind abolition and disability justice in a way that is easy to understand for those new to these concepts yet also gives insights that will be useful to seasoned activists The book uses extensive research and professional and lived experience to illuminate the way the State uses disability and its power to disable to incarcerate multiply marginalized disabled people especially those who are queer trans Black or Indigenous Because disabled people are much more likely than nondisabled people to be locked up in prisons jails and other sites of incarceration abolitionists and others critical of carceral systems must incorporate a disability justice perspective into our work A People s Guide to Abolition and Disability Justice gives personal and policy examples of how and why disabled people are disproportionately caught up in the carceral net and how we can use this information to work toward prison and police abolition more effectively This book includes practical tools and strategies that will be useful for anyone who cares about disability justice or abolition and explains why we can t

Brim,2020-03-06 In Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim shifts queer studies away from its familiar sites of elite education toward poor and working class people places and pedagogies Brim shows how queer studies also takes place beyond the halls of flagship institutions in night school after a three hour commute in overflowing classrooms at no name colleges with no research budget without access to decent food with kids in tow in a state of homelessness Drawing on the everyday experiences of teaching and learning queer studies at the College of Staten Island Brim outlines the ways the field has been driven by the material and intellectual resources of those institutions that neglect and rarely serve poor and minority students By exploring poor and working class queer ideas and laying bare the structural and disciplinary mechanisms of inequality that suppress them Brim jumpstarts a queer class knowledge project committed to anti elitist and anti racist education Poor Queer Studies is essential for all of those who care about the state of higher education and building a more equitable academy Sonorous Worlds Yana Stainova,2021-10-14 El Sistema is a nationwide state funded music education program in Venezuela Founded in 1975 by economist and musician Jos Antonio Abreu the institution has weathered seven jolting changes in government Hugo Ch vez and after his death president Nicol s Maduro enthusiastically included the institution into the political agenda of the socialist project and captured the affective power of music for their own aims Fueled by the oil boom in the 2000s El Sistema grew over the years to encompass 1 210 orchestras for children and young people in Venezuela reached almost 1 million people out of the 30 million in the country and served as a model in more than 35 countries around the world Sonorous Worlds is an ethnography of the young Venezuelan musicians who participate in El Sistema many of whom live in urban barrios and face everyday gang violence state repression social exclusion and forced migration in response to sociopolitical crisis This book looks at how these young people engage with what the author calls enchantment that is how through musical practices they create worlds that escape rupture and critique dominant structures of power Stainova's focus on artistic practice and enchantment allows her to theorize the successes and failures of political projects through the lens of everyday transformations in people's lives

Women Waging War in the American Revolution Holly A. Mayer, 2022-09-07 America's War for Independence dramatically affected the speed and nature of broader social cultural and political changes including those shaping the place and roles of women in society Women fought the American Revolution in many ways in a literal no less than a figurative sense Whether Loyalist or Patriot Indigenous or immigrant enslaved or slave owning going willingly into battle or responding when war came to their doorsteps women participated in the conflict in complex and varied ways that reveal the critical distinctions and intersections of race class and allegiance that defined the era This collection examines the impact of Revolutionary era women on the outcomes of the war and its subsequent narrative tradition from popular perception to academic treatment The contributors show how women navigated a country at war directly affected the war's result and influenced the foundational historical record left in its wake Engaging directly with that record this volume's authors demonstrate the ways that the Revolution transformed women's place in America as it offered new opportunities but also imposed new limitations in the brave new world they helped create Contributors Jacqueline Beatty York College Carin Bloom Historic Charleston Foundation Todd W Braisted independent scholar Benjamin L Carp Brooklyn College Lauren Duval University of Oklahoma Steven Elliott U S Army Center of Military History Lorri Glover Saint Louis University Don N Hagist Journal of the American Revolution Sean M Heuvel Christopher Newport University Martha J King Papers of Thomas Jefferson Barbara Alice Mann University of Toledo J Patrick Mullins Marquette University Alisa Wade California State University at Chico

Black Women as Custodians of History: Unsung Rebel (M)Others in African American and Afro-Cuban Women's Writing Paula Sanmartin, 2014-03-28 This book is an essential addition to the study of comparative black literature of the Americas it will also fill the gap that exists on theoretical studies exploring black women's writing from the Spanish Caribbean This book examines literary representations of the historic roots of black women's resistance in the United States and Cuba by studying the following texts by both African American and Afro-Cuban women from four different literary genres autobiographical slave narrative contemporary novel on slavery testimonial narrative and poetry Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl 1861 by the African American former slave Harriet Jacobs Dessa Rose 1986 by the African American writer Sherley Ann Williams Reyita sencillamente testimonio de una negra cubana nonagenarian Simply Reyita Testimonial Narrative of a Nonagenarian Black Cuban Woman 1996

written transcribed by the Afro Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo from her interviews with her mother Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Bueno Reyita and a selection of poems from the contemporary Afro Cuban poets Nancy Morej n and Georgina Herrera The study argues that the writers participate in black women s self inscription in the historical process by positioning themselves as subjects of their history and seizing discursive control of their hi stories Although the texts form part of separate discourses the book explores the commonalities of the rhetorical devices and narrative strategies employed by the authors as they disassemble racist and sexist stereotypes re constructing black female subjectivity through an image of active resistance against oppression one that authorizes unconventional definitions of womanhood and motherhood The book shows that in the womens revisions of national history their writings also demonstrate the pervasive role of racial and gender categories in the creation of a discourse of national identity while promoting a historiography constructed within flexible borders that need to be negotiated constantly The study s engagement in crosscultural exploration constitutes a step further in opening connections with a comparative literary study that is theoretically engaging in order to include Afro Cuban women writers and Afro Caribbean scholars into scholarly discussions in which African American women have already managed to participate with a series of critical texts The book explores connections between methods and perspectives derived from Western theories and from Caribbean and Black studies while recognizing the black women authors studied as critics and scholars In this sense the book includes some of the writers own commentaries about their work taken from interviews many of them conducted by the author Paula Sanmart n herself as well as critical essays and letters Black Women as Custodians of History adds a new dimension to the body of existing criticism by challenging the ways assumptions have shaped how literature is read by black women writers Paula Sanmart n s study is a vivid demonstration of the strengths of embarking on multidisciplinary study This book will be useful to several disciplines and areas of study such as African diaspora studies African American studies Afro Latin American and Afro Caribbean studies women s studies genre studies and slavery studies
