Sembene Imagining Alternatives In Film Fiction:

Sembene David Murphy, 2000 Sembene is one of the major figures of African literature and also one of Africa's foremost film directors This is the first study to give an overview of his work in fiction and on screen This book examines Sembene Ousmane's radical reinterpretation of African history and culture focusing on representations of the African city animism the role of women colonialism and neo colonialism The author argues that Sembene imagines alternatives to the dominant narratives of both Africa in general and Senegal in particular North America Africa World Press Ousmane Sembene and the Politics of Culture Lifongo J. Vetinde, Amadou T. Fofana, 2014-11-12 Undoubtedly one of Africa's most influential first generation of writers and filmmakers Ousmane Sembene's creative works of fiction as well as his films have been the subject of a considerable number of scholarly articles The schemas of reading applied to Sembene's oeuvre novels short stories and films have in the main focused either on his militant posture against colonialism his disenchantment with African leadership or his infatuation with documenting the past in an attempt to present a balanced and nuanced view of African history While these studies unquestionably contribute to a better understanding of his works they collectively ignore Sembene's relentless preoccupation with culture in his entire career as a writer and filmmaker The collection of essays in Sembene and the Politics of Culture sets out to fill that gap as the contributors at once foreground Sembene's fixation on the centrality of culture in the articulation of the discourse of national consciousness and reevaluate his intellectual and artistic legacy within an overarching framework of African liberation The contributors critically reassess the ideological underpinnings of Sembene's thoughts his role as one of the foundational pillars of African cultural production and his relevance in current discourses of nationhood They do so through a wide variety of interdisciplinary approaches that draw on linguistics feminist theory film theory historiography Marxist criticism psychoanalysis and a host of other approaches that give novel insights in the critical analysis of the works under study In the part entitled Testimonies a collection of conversations with people who worked closely with Sembene each of the interlocutors provide illuminating insights into the man's life and work The variety of themes and critical approaches in this critical anthology will certainly be of interest not only to students and scholars of African literature and cinema at various levels of intellectual and cultural sophistication but also anyone interested in the analysis of the nexus between power culture and the discourse of liberation La francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité Michaël Abecassis, Gudrun Ledegen, Karen Zouaoui, 2011-05-25 The first part of this volume La Francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité is devoted to Francophone cinema between Bollywood and Hollywood What in particular does Francophone cinema have to offer compared with American or Indian cinema What more does Francophone cinema have to offer What genres does it prefer For what audience The second part deals with the promotion of diversity in Francophone countries taking into consideration the cultural aspects of Francophonie in the 21st century the linguistic description of systems in contact tracing the historical stages which have led to the creation of this locus of cultural diversity and focusing finally on university cooperation and Franco British scientific research This book brings together contributions by outstanding authors who gathered in Oxford in October 2010 at the Maison française including Louis Jean Calvet Professor at the University of Provence In collaboration with the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie he works on language policy particularly the struggle to maintain linguistic diversity Bernard Cerquiglini Rector of the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie An eminent linguist and specialist on the French language Bernard Cerquiglini is known as the Professor from TV5 Monde s Merci Professeur Philippe Lane is the Cultural Attaché at the French Embassy in London Gudrun Ledegen Sociolinguist Lecturer in Linguistics at the Universität der Ruhr She specialises in contact between French and Creole in La Ruhr The discussion is complemented by contributions by Maryse Bray Karine Chevalier Anne Caroline Fievet Hélyne Gill Amélie Hien Gaëlle Planchenault and Alena Podhorn Polick

Meaninglessness Vlad Dima,2022-09-01 For too long the approach to seemingly universal experiences like love death and even time in film has been dominated by the Global North But what if such explorations developed horizontally instead Drawing from both European and African cultural theorists including Gilles Deleuze and Wole Soyinka Vlad Dima invites us to consider what happens to postcolonial African film if we no longer privilege the idea of time How else might we understand the cinematic image and how would its meanings change Meaninglessness Time Rhythm and the Undead in Postcolonial Cinema is a study of meaning and meaninglessness through the figure of the undead beginning with francophone Africa and extending to postcolonial France Through the analysis of films like Mati Diop's Atlantics and Jean Pierre Bekolo's Miraculous Weapons Dima shows how the African cinematic image may produce meaning without any attachment to European time and how that meaning is connected instead to the philosophy of negritude and to the notion of rhythm Meaninglessness introduces the concept of the rhythm sequence as a new way to understand the African moving image often cast communism as a defunct bankrupt ideology and a relic of the distant past. However, recent political movements like Europe's anti-austerity protests, the Arab Spring, and Occupy Wall Street suggest that communism is still very much relevant and may even hold the key to a new idealized future. In The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures, contributors trace the legacies of communist ideology in visual culture from buildings and monuments, murals and sculpture to recycling campaigns and wall newspapers, all of which work to make communism's ideas and values material. Contributors work to resist the widespread demonization of communism, demystifying its ideals and suggesting that it has visually shaped the modern world in undeniable and complex ways. Together, contributors answer crucial questions like: What can be salvaged and reused from past communist experiments? How has communism impacted the cultures of late capitalism? And how have histories of communism left behind visual traces of potential utopias? An interdisciplinary look at the cultural currency of communism today. The Oxford Handbook of Communist Visual Cultures demonstrates the value of revisiting the practices of the past to form a better vision of the future. Diplomatic Para-citations Sam Okoth Opondo, 2022-02-09 Taking seriously the critical conception of diplomacy as the mediation of estrangement, Diplomatic Para-citations turns to the politics and laws that tie modern diplomacy to colonial cultures and the genres of Man that they privilege. In an attempt to read the diplomatic from the African postcolony, the book probes the injunction at the center of the law of genre that states that genres are not to be mixed. This enables it to investigate the citational, recitational forms of knowledge and practices of recognition that reproduce the diplomatic and colonial order of things in the African context. Through a reading of literature, philosophy, and a multiplicity of everyday practices in Africa and its diasporas, Sam Okoth Opondo explores amateur diplomatic practices that provide a counterforce to laws that prescribe faithfulness to a norm, form, while proscribing the mixing of genres.

Intertextuality in Contemporary African Literature Ode Ogede, 2011-09-16 This book is a study in African literary influence. It focuses on the importance of indigenous sources to new writing. The analytical framework for the study draws on recent conceptual advances in theories of authorship. Juxtaposing works and authors that are traditionally thought to be unlikely bedfellows, the book persuasively identifies their hitherto unexamined points of contact, opening up a vigorous debate about the roots of African literature and offering a radical critique of the assumptions underlying conventional notions of African literature. The book provides valuable insight on the roles of such activities as appropriation, copying, pastiche, parody, simulation, foraging, grafting, padding, recycling, and remodeling in underwriting literary expression in Africa. Alive with wit and full of delight in the texts it discusses, it is a marvel of close and attentive detective reading. Storytelling in World Cinemas, Volume 1 Lina Khatib, 2012-04-24 Storytelling in World Cinemas Vol 2 Contexts addresses the questions of what and why particular stories are told in films around the world, both in terms of the forms of storytelling used and of the political, religious, historical, and social contexts informing cinematic storytelling. Drawing on films from all five continents, the book approaches storytelling from a cultural, historical, multidisciplinary perspective, focusing on the influence of cultural

Existentialism and Contemporary Cinema Jean-Pierre Boulé, Enda McCaffrey, 2011-10-01 At the heart of this volume is the assertion that Sartrean existentialism most prominent in the 1940s particularly in France is still relevant as a way of interpreting the world today Film by reflecting philosophical concerns in the actions and choices of characters continues and extends a tradition in which art exemplifies the understanding of existentialist philosophy In a scholarly yet accessible style the contributors exploit the rich interplay between Sartre's philosophy plays and novels and a number of contemporary films including No Country for Old Men Lost in Translation and The Truman Show with film makers including the Dardenne brothers Michael Haneke and Mike Leigh This volume will be of interest to students who are coming to Sartre's work for the first time and to those who would like to read films within an existentialist perspective Realisms in Contemporary Culture

Dorothee Birke, Stella Butter, 2013-08-01 Realism is a pervasive term in discussions of contemporary developments in the cultural sphere By drawing on different theories of realism the authors explore how the term may be used as a helpful concept in order to analyse and evaluate current trends in cultural production and in turn how cultural production changes our understanding of what counts as realism The contributions deal with realism in narrative fiction drama and audiovisual media film television news within the context of national traditions examples drawn on in the case studies range from Africa Britain Germany Iceland Russia Turkey to the United States While the authors take their cues from media specific realisms focusing especially on narrative fiction the volume also highlights continuities and intersections between notions of realism in different genres and media With its original essays this collection invigorates the transdisciplinary engagement with forms and socio political functions of realism in contemporary culture Past Imperfect Pierre-Philippe Fraiture, 2021-04-15 This book proposes to examine French and Francophone intellectual history in the period leading to the decolonization of sub appropriation Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse. It is an anthology of historical reflections, critical essays and interviews by film critics, historians, theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa. The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential. This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices. The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices. Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms.

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Oliver Lovesey, 2012-01-01 Ng g wa Thiong o is one of the most important and celebrated authors of postindependence Africa as well as a groundbreaking postcolonial theorist. His work, written first in English then in Gikuyu, engages with the transformations of his native Kenya after what is often termed the Mau Mau rebellion. It also gives voice to the struggles of all Africans against economic injustice and political oppression. His writing and activism have continued despite imprisonment, the threat of assassination and exile. Part 1 of this volume, Materials, provides resources and background for the teaching of Ng g s novels, plays, memoirs and criticism. The essays of part 2, Approaches, consider the influence of Frantz Fanon, Karl Marx and Joseph Conrad on Ng g, how the role of women in his fiction is inflected by feminism, his interpretation and political use of African history, his experimentation with orality and allegory in narrative and the different challenges of teaching Ng g in classrooms in the United States, Europe and Africa.

Xala James S. Williams, 2024-05-02 Xala 1974 by the pioneering Senegalese director Ousmane Sembene was acclaimed on its release for its scorching critique of postcolonial African society and it cemented Sembene s status as a wholly new kind of politically engaged pan African auteur film maker. Centring on the story of businessman El Hadji and the impotence that afflicts him on his marriage to a young third wife, Xala vividly captures the cultural and political upheaval of 1970s Senegal while suggesting the radical potential of dissent, solidarity and collective action embodied by El Hadji s student daughter Rama and the group of urban undesirables who act as a kind of raw chorus to the affairs of the neocolonial elite. James S. Williams s lucid study traces Xala s difficult production history and analyses its daring combination of political and domestic drama, oral narrative, social realism, symbolism, satire, documentary, mysticism and Marxist analysis. Yet from its dazzling extended opening sequence of revolution as performance to its suspended climax of redemption through ritualised spitting, Xala presents a series of conceptual and formal challenges that resist a simple reading of the film as allegory. Highlighting often overlooked elements of Sembene's intricate experimental film making including provocative shifts in mood and poetic even subversively erotic moments Williams reveals Xala as a visionary work of both African cinema and Third Cinema that extended the parameters of postcolonial film practice and still resounds today with its searing inventive power

Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly, 2005-01-01 In Autobiography and Independence Debra Kelly examines four accomplished Francophone North African writers Mouand Feroan Assia Djebar Albert Memmi and Abdelkeacute bir Khatibi to illuminate the complex relationship of a writer's work to cultural and national histories The legacies of colonialism and the difficulties of nationalism run throughout all four writers works yet in their striking individuality the four demonstrate the ways in which such heritages are refracted through a writer's personal history This book will be of interest to students of Francophone literature colonialism and African history and culture
