Perspectives on Language Structure and Language Change

Lars Heltoft, Iván Igartua, Brian D. Joseph, Kirsten Jeppesen Kragh, Lene Schøsler, 2019-06-15 This volume centers on three important theoretical concepts for the study of language change and the ways in which language structure emerges and turns into new structure reanalysis actualization and indexicality Reanalysis is a part of ongoing everyday language use a process through which language is reproduced and changed Actualization refers to the processes through which a reanalyzed structure spreads throughout single communities and society Indexicality covers the way in which parts of a linguistic system can point to other parts of the system both syntagmatically and paradigmatically The inclusion of indexicality leads to fine grained analysis in morphology word order and constructional syntax The Polish Elite and

Language Sciences Tomasz Zarycki, 2022-07-14 This book revisits the modern history of Poland from the perspective of its social sciences The book makes this case study a model for the application of Bourdieu s approach to the historical analysis of non core Western societies The book is in other words a reflexive study of the application of Bourdieu s social theory At the same time it also critically studies the application of Western social theory in Poland which is largely seen as a peripheral country The study of Polish social sciences with particular emphasis on linguistics and literary studies points to the peculiar dynamics of peripheral intellectual and academic fields and their external dependencies These insights offer a critical extension of Bourdieu s theory of state and social elites beyond the Western core focusing on how the theories can be used in the reinterpretation and expansion of post colonial theory global history and comparative studies of post communism The book will be suitable for scholars and students of all those interested in the social theory of Pierre Bourdieu global historical sociology societies in Central and Eastern socio linguistics literary studies and political sociology
