Alexander,1984      Expressivity in Modern Poetry Donald Wellman,2019-02-26 Expressivity in Modern Poetry explores three interrelated subjects The first is a general exposition of the radical or deeply realistic aspects of the poetry and visual arts of the modern period The focus is on the works of Ezra Pound as understood through a prism of postmodern thought The second subject is the poetry and poetics of Charles Olson a pivotal figure during the transition from modernism to postmodernism

The third subject is contemporary innovative poetry with special attention to transcultural neobarroco and language centered aspects of composition The grounding for this section is found in the works of William Carlos Williams Aime Cesaire and Jose Lezama Lima A reversal of the relation between the center and periphery decentering the New York to Paris vector is crucial for understanding the Caribbean as a seedbed for both innovative and identity based poetics Wellman s purpose is to amplify the cultural importance of expressivity in a field where critical discussion is often dominated by constructivism and conceptualism Expressivity in Modern Poetry offers a new reading of the relation between twentieth century modernism and contemporary poetic practice A third book of modern poetry Henry Arthur Treble,1927 Wordsworth and
