In the Book of Genesis the purpose for which God created us is contained When architects design a building or artists draw a painting they first conceive the work that would be completed in their minds before they actually begin working on their project Just like this our God also had our salvation of mankind in His mind even before He created the heavens and the earth and He made Adam and Eve with this purpose in mind And God needed to explain to us the domain of Heaven which is not seen by our eyes of the flesh by drawing an analogy to the domain of the earth that we can all see and understand Even before the foundation of the world God wanted to save mankind perfectly by giving the gospel of the water and the Spirit to everyone's heart So although all human beings were made out of dust they must learn and know the gospel Truth of the water and the Spirit to benefit their own souls If people continue to live without knowing the dominion of Heaven they will lose not only the things of the earth but also everything that belongs to Heaven

Conversations with a Suffering Servant David Wyn Williams, 2020-11-26 David Wyn Williams presents a literary reimagining of the Suffering Servant of Second Isaiah through the lens of the work of Mikhail Bakhtin offering insight into how the servant's prophetic characterisation dismantled an exiled nation's ideologies of suffering and called the people to understand their plight as part of a redemptive story on behalf of the nations While Williams devotes the first half of this volume to a close examination of the scriptural servant the second half is given wholly to the experiences and thoughts of a contemporary suffering servant whom Williams interviewed throughout his final days setting up a dialogue between the two in order to raise important questions around our corporate and individual responses to suffering This book is a timely reflection on how an ancient people responded in faith to a national calamity and how a prophetic figure who features in but a handful of poems inspired the nation to endure and rewrite its own narrative of suffering The servant's example in the midst of today's uncertainties could not be more poignant
