The Melanesian Mission, founded by Bishop George Augustus Selwyn in 1846, is a branch of the Church of the Province of New Zealand. Through the agency of missionaries the Church has been able to bring to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the story of the progress of the Christian faith in these islands.

In the first place, the Melanesian Mission, founded in 1846, is the principal and original work of the Church in the South Sea Islands. It has been the means of bringing to the knowledge of Christ a large part of the South Sea Islands, and to bring to the knowledge of the world the story of the progress of the Christian faith in these islands.
