The Gift of Reading – Part 1 J. Alexander Rutherford, 2019-09-30 If the Word of God is our anchor in the chaos of this world if it is our assurance that we can know the world and God its creator we need confidence that we can understand this Word Reading and applying the Bible is essential to every facet of Christian life and ministry yet our ability to do so is under attack from a myriad of directions In Postmodern philosophy the possibility of communication is dismissed let alone communication from God In Biblical studies the amount of knowledge required to come to firm conclusions concerning the meaning and application of the Bible grows every day However the Bible is not so pessimistic about its accessibility Instead it presents itself as a clear word sufficient to guide and encourage Christians in every area of life Beginning with the Bible's own claims to clarity and sufficiency The Gift of Reading Part 1 outlines the practice of reading the Bible in order to understand and apply it The Gift of Reading Part 2 will go further into the theory that lies beneath the methodology unpacked in Part 1

L. Shastri,Ganesh Vasudeo Tagare,2004-01-01 The Purana is a class of literature that treats of ancient religion philosophy history sociology politics and other subjects It is an Encyclopaedia of various branches of knowledge and ancient wisdom It has been defined as a class of literature that contains material on the topics of Creation Dissolution of Manus Ages of Manus Genealogies and the History of glorious kings For dealing primarily with these subjects it has been called Pancalaksana a little that was incorporated in the Puranas themselves and had become popular by the Fifth Century A D for it was included by Amarasimha in his lexicon Amarakosa But as the process of interpolation continued the Pancalaksana definition was found inadequate The Puranic redactors adopted a Dasalaksana definition that suited the contemporary text Still the dynamic forces were at work and the process of insertion modification and abridgement went on and it was soon discovered that the Dasalaksana definition too fell short of an actual fact It was found that the Puranas contained certain aspects that were not covered by any of the five or ten characteristics Besides some of the characteristics covered by the Pancalaksana or Dasalaksana definition were not found in certain Puranas In fact the Purana as a class represents the different phases and aspects of the life of diverse ages It is impossible to adopt a standard definition for the class of literary composition that contains heterogeneous phases and aspects Moreover a definition framed on the numerical basis of points is bound to be imperfect The Puranas are divided into two classes the Mahapuranas and the Upapuranas Each class consists of eighteen Puranas Thus the number of the Puranas is thirty six
