Spanish in Four Continents Carmen Silva-Corvalán, 1997-04-01 This collection is the first to examine the effects of bilingualism and multilingualism on the development of dialectal varieties of Spanish in Africa America Asia and Europe Nineteen essays investigate a variety of complex situations of contact between Spanish and typologically different languages including Basque Bantu languages English and Quechua The overall picture that evolves clearly indicates that although influence from the contact languages may lead to different dialects the core grammar of Spanish remains intact Silva Corvalán s volume makes an important contribution both to sociolinguistics in general and to Spanish linguistics in particular The contributors address theoretical and empirical issues that advance our knowledge of what is a possible linguistic change how languages change and how changes spread in society in situations of intensive bilingualism and language contact a situation that appears to be the norm rather than the exception in the world Making Ecuadorian

Histories O. Hugo Benavides, 2010-01-01 In Ecuador as in all countries archaeology and history play fundamental roles in defining national identity Connecting with the prehistoric and historic pasts gives the modern state legitimacy and power But the state is not the only actor that lays claim to the country s archaeological patrimony nor is its official history the only version of the story Indigenous peoples are increasingly drawing on the past to claim their rights and standing in the modern Ecuadorian state while the press tries to present a neutral version of history that will satisfy its various publics This pathfinding book investigates how archaeological knowledge is used for both maintaining and contesting nation building and state hegemony in Ecuador Specifically Hugo Benavides analyzes how the pre Hispanic site of Cochasqui has become a source of competing narratives of Native American Spanish and Ecuadorian occupations which serve the differing needs of the nation state and different national populations at large He also analyzes the Indian movement itself and the recent controversy over the final resting place for the traditional monolith of San Birtute Offering a more nuanced view of the production of history than previous studies Benavides demonstrates how both official and resistance narratives are constantly reproduced and embodied within the nation state s dominant discourses Los cayambes y carangues, siglos XV-XVI Waldemar Espinoza Soriano, 1983 Los cayambes y carangues Waldemar Espinoza Soriano, 1988 Los señoríos del norte andino del reyno di Quito Piedad Peñaherrera de Costales, Alfredo Costales Samaniego, 1993 Bibliographic Guide to Anthropology and Archaeology, 1991 Loanwords in the World's Languages Martin Haspelmath, Uri Tadmor, 2009-12-22 This book is the first work to address the question of what kinds of words get borrowed in a systematic and comparative perspective It studies lexical borrowing behavior on the basis of a world wide sample of 40 languages both major languages and minor languages and both languages with heavy borrowing and languages with little lexical influence from other languages The book is the result of a five year project bringing together a unique group of specialists of many different languages and areas The introductory chapters provide a general up to date introduction to language contact at the word level as well as a presentation of the project s methodology All the chapters are based on samples of 1000 2000 words elicited by a uniform meaning list of 1460 meanings The combined database comprising over 70 000 words is published online at the same time as the book is published For each word information about loanword status is given in the database and the 40 case studies in the book describe the social and historical contact situations in detail The final chapter draws general conclusions about what kinds of words tend to get borrowed what kinds of word meanings are particularly resistant to borrowing and what kinds of social contact situations lead to what kinds of borrowing situations Personalidades y dilemas en la arqueología ecuatoriana Betty Jane Meggers, Echeverría Almeida Echeverría A., 1996 Evolución social José Alcina Franch, 1999-06-22 El nuevo ensayo de Jos Alcina Franch se centra en torno a un grupo de temas fundamentales historia y evoluci n evoluci n y progreso origen del poder pol tico adaptaci n ecol gica etc La primera parte del libro subtitulada Teor a destaca esencialmente el papel de la ideolog a y la pol tica en el evolucionismo sociocultural analiz ndose
